Thanksgiving Church Services Planned Around County

Churches throughout Marin County will open their doors tonight and tomorrow for traditional Thanksgiving services.

In some cases, the services will be union programs with as many as five congregations getting together for joint services.

In San Anselmo, a long-established joint service will be perpetuated at 10 a.m. when the congregations of the First Presbyterian Church and St. John's Episcopal Church gather at First Presbyterian. The services have alternated from one church to the other for many years.

A Thanksgiving eve service in the Golden Gate Baptist Seminary at Strawberry Point will begin at 8 o'clock tonight with the congregations of the following four churches taking part: Tiburon Boulevard Southern Baptist Church, the First Baptist Church of Mill Valley, the Assembly of God Church of Southern Marin and the Methodist Church of Mill Valley.

Another Thanksgiving eve service will be held at 7:30 tonight at the First Baptist Church of San Anselmo.

Union services tomorrow will be conducted by the Marin City Ministerial Alliance in the Marin City Lounge at 9 a.m. Participating churches are the Village Baptist Church, the First Presbyterian Church of Marin City, the Church of God and the Gospel Fellowship Community Church.

Five churches in the Terra Linda area, Christ Presbyterian Church, Faith Lutheran Church, Aldersgate Methodist Church, Santa Venetia Presbyterian Church and the First Congregational Church, will conduct services at the First Community Church at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

Masses in Catholic churches throughout the county will follow the normal schedules with Thanksgiving being emphasized.

Christian Science Churches in Marin will all have 11 a.m. services tomorrow.

Other services tomorrow include:

San Rafael area—St. Paul's Episcopal, 10 a.m.; Church of Nativity, Episcopal, 10 a.m.; First Presbyterian Church, 10 a.m.; Trinity Lutheran Church, 10:30 a.m.; Methodist Church of San Rafael, 8:30 a.m. and St. Luke's Presbyterian Church, 10 a.m.

Congregation Kol Shofer will hold its Thanksgiving service in the Marin Jewish Community Center, San Rafael, at 11 a.m. Sunday.

HIS HOURS ARE NUMBERED

Chef Lars Eric Benson of Peacock Gap Country Club, firm believer that a bird in the oven is worth two on the lawn, is eyed with some suspicion as he sneaks up on potential piece de resistance for Thanksgiving menu. (Maybe Mr. Gobbler sees that cleaver.) Marinites will be sitting down to consume large portions of turkey tomorrow at home and at restaurants. REDS APPEAR TO BATTLE BY DEADLINE

Spectacular China Gains Are Reported

NEW DELHI (AP)—Fighting was reported continuing in the Indian-Red Chinese war despite the cease-fire deadline of midnight set by the Chinese.

Sweeping toward the deadline, Red China's troops scored spectacular gains today in twin drives from the Himalayas toward the flat, open country of North Assam.

The deadline was midnight Peking time.

That was 10:30 p.m. by watches of the Indians, whose leadership viewed suspiciously and in effect rejected Peking's one-sided decision to break off the shooting for a general withdrawal.

There was no immediate word as to whether Chinese guns were truly silenced, or whether battered Indian combat units accepted the respite.

A Defense Ministry spokesman told of sharp Indian reverses at a news conference less than 12 hours before the deadline.

Chinese troops pouring across the conquered Se Pass sector of the Himalayas have broken through Indian defenses south of Bomdila and are plunging toward the Assam plains, he said.

The peril to the Assam city of Tezpur, a tea and rice center 60 air miles southeast of Bomdila, forced its evacuation.

The Indian army corps headquarters based in a hazardous spot there, on the north bank of the sacred Brahmaputra River, pulled back to an undisclosed new site and 660 Westerners—British and American men, women and children—joined thousands of Indians in flight.

At the eastern end of the front the Chinese pushed about 65 miles farther down the Luhit River Valley toward the Brahmaputra. This was a drive which, linked with that from Bomdila, could form a pincers on the plains.

Center Finally Is Accepted

Marin County supervisors yesterday accepted the Civic Center administration building, some five weeks later than was expected.

Move of offices to the center, it was indicated, will be completed about a week before Christmas.

Included in what County Counsel E. Warren McGuire termed a package deal, and moved by Supervisor Peter Behr, was an architect's certificate of completion to be filed with the recorder's office, a "punch list" of building items incomplete or defective which are to be remedied, and a supplemental agreement between county and contractor.

The supplemental agreement specifies that contractor Rothschild, Raffin and Wierick does not waive its claim for more than $14,000 damages because of the supervisors' stop-work in January of last year. Several other minor claims are also specified as still to be settled.

On suggestion of Administrator Alan Bruce, the board passed a resolution asking cooperation of the public in staying away from the building until it is declared formally open. Otherwise, Bruce said, questions of liability might arise. Architect Aaron Green estimated the public could be welcomed within about 30 days.

Matt Graham Is Dropped From Gate Bridge Board

MATT A. GRAHAM
Out as bridge director

Service Spanned 2 Decades

Matt A. Graham of San Anselmo failed of reappointment to the board of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District by 2-3 vote of Marin County supervisors yesterday.

He has served for 20 years, has been president since Jan. 13, 1961, following two years as first vice president. He has been a staunch supporter of the bridge's general manager, James Adam.

Although his term expired Nov. 10, he will continue to serve temporarily because after turning down one other nominee the supervisors postponed further action until next Tuesday. He joined the board Nov. 10, 1942.

"I am naturally disappointed, but the supervisors are boss," said Graham today.

He was not present when the supervisors took up the issue after 5 p.m. after chairman Walter R. Castro had smilingly asked if somebody cared to move adjournment.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman moved that Graham be reappointed. Prompt second came from George Ludy.

Castro suggested the matter could be held over a week. Fusselman said he'd just as soon see that course taken. But Supervisor Peter Behr, long desirous of a shake-up on the bridge board, countered that he would like to see action taken, so Clerk George Gnoss called the roll. Behr,

MOTORCYCLE CRASH FATAL TO MAN, 24

Marshall John Hirsch's new silver-and-red Honda flashed past a car driven west by Tom Blanchard of Woodacre seconds before the crash at 11:50 p.m.

Hirsch was rushed unconscious to Marin General Hospital by United Ambulance. He died at 2:25 a.m., Marin County's 24th highway fatality of the year. At this time last year the number totaled only 13.

Blanchard told the California Highway Patrol that he and his wife, Effie, were passed by the 'cycle "like we were tied to a tree." He estimated its speed at between 60 and 65 miles an hour up a slight grade into a sweeping left curve. It was still on the left side of the road at a point where there was a double no-passing center line, he reported.

As the Blanchards watched, the 'cycle started to skid on damp and slippery paving. After sliding on its side for 80 feet, it left the road and plummeted eight feet down a bank.

Hirsch suffered fatal head and chest injuries.

The body was removed to Harry M. Williams Mortuary.

Survivors include a wife, Diana, and two children aged 2 and 3. The Hirsches live on Meadow Way at Creamery Road.

Former Governor Candidate Files To Succeed Rep. Miller

John C. Stuart, 54, a brand new Novato resident, who polled 103,654 votes for governor in the Democratic primary last June, is in the race to succeed the late Clem Miller in Congress.

Stuart, a cost analyst from Auburn, moved to Novato three days ago. He walked into the Marin County clerk's office yesterday, plunked down his $225 fee and announced he is a candidate for Congress from the First Congressional District as a Democrat.

A special election will be held on Jan. 22 to fill Miller's seat.

CRISIS EASES AS CUBAN BLOCKADE LIFTED BY U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ships of the big U.S. blockade fleet steamed toward home ports or headed out for routine patrols today, their month-long vigil over arms shipments into Cuba ended.

The Defense Department sent instructions to the Atlantic Fleet commander to disperse the force within minutes after President John F. Kennedy's announcement last night the naval quarantine was lifted.

The first ships were expected to come into the nearer home ports tonight or tomorrow morning, some of them back to base for the first time since Oct. 22.

They had composed one of the largest naval concentrations since the Korean War—an armada of carriers, cruisers, destroyers, attack submarines—and supporting tankers and supply vessels.

In making his announcement of calling off the blockade, the president said there is reason for gratitude in this Thanksgiving week.

But the president said serious problems remain. It was Kennedy's first news conference since the Cuban crisis spread jitters around the world.

Until arrangements are made to verify the withdrawal of Soviet missiles and planes, preferably by inspection on the spot, he said the United States will do its own checking on military activity in Cuba.

He clearly meant that among other measures this country would continue to send out reconnaissance planes to guard against another buildup in Cuba, despite Prime Minister Fidel Castro's threat to shoot them down.

A few hours after the Kennedy announcement the Soviet government canceled the state of combat readiness it proclaimed for its armed forces because of the Cuban crisis.

Moscow radio said the Soviet Council of Ministers had ordered Defense Minister Rodion Malinovsky to return his forces to normal status because the United States had lifted its arms blockade of Cuba.

The order canceled one is-

Slayer Goes To Death; Brown Spares Partner

Allen Ditson, 42, died today in the gas chamber at San Quentin Prison for the 1959 murder of a robbery ring accomplice.

With the failure of all legal maneuvers, Ditson, a North Hollywood jeweler, was executed less than 24 hours after the life of his partner in the crime, Carlos Cisneros, 29, was spared by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Ditson went to his death quietly, prison officials said. The cyanide pellets were dropped at 10:04 a.m. and Ditson was pronounced dead at 10:12 a.m.

The governor granted Cisneros executive clemency, commuting his death sentence to life imprisonment without possibility of parole, but he refused to intervene for Ditson. The two had been scheduled to die together.

In commuting Cisneros' sentence, Governor Brown said the man had shown remorse for helping Ditson kill Robert Ward, a fellow member of a

Redwood-Tam Game Might Draw 10,000

A Redwood High School official today predicted a crowd of "at least 10,000" persons would overflow College of Marin Stadium tomorrow for the Redwood-Tamalpais championship football game.

"Judging by the fantastic advance ticket sales we should have at least 10,000," said Director of Athletics Robert Troppmann. The Kentfield stadium seats only approximately 6,500.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Pope Intervenes

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII intervened today in the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council and ordered a new study of a controversial theological thesis considered important for Christian unity.

The Pope said the thesis—on divine revelation and its sources—should be examined jointly by the council's Theological Commission, the Vatican Secretariat for Christian Unity, and a number of cardinals.

His action, announced by a spokesman, amounted to a success for progressive elements inside the council. They had argued that the thesis either be shelved or rewritten in the interest of interchurch relations.

Holiday Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy and his family were to leave the nation's capital today to spend the Thanksgiving weekend at Hyannis Port, Mass.

New Computer For Vehicle Department

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Department of Motor Vehicles today signed a contract for a one-million-dollar electronic computer to handle vehicle registration and billing.

The contract calls for delivery of the Philco S-2000 system next April 1, with limited operation scheduled for midsummer.

The system will eventually replace the department's data processing equipment and most of the more than 130-million punched cards which now keep track of California's vehicle registration, ownership records, transfers and bills.

Mail For Mosca

The postcard was addressed to the village of Felino in the district of Mosca.

Mosca is the Italian name for Moscow, and the card went off to the Soviet capital. The Moscow postoffice sent it back.

Mexican Leader

PASADENA (UPI)—Marco Ignacio Diaz-Infante, self-styled Mexican revolutionary and leader of the newly named Nationalist Republican Party, yesterday announced his candidacy for the presidency of Mexico.

The 41-year-old leader of the so-called Zapata movement told a news conference his party was ready to use armed force to insure free elections next June.

Diaz-Infante, who ended a 180-day jail term in the United States earlier this month for a parole violation stemming from a 1947 grand theft conviction, said he would return to Mexico "within 30 days."

Baby Sitter Slain

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI) — A teen-age baby sitter was shot to death early today by an irate boy friend climaxing an argument at the apartment where the girl worked.

Police said Alice Wilcoxson, 17, had been shot possibly four times in the head with a .45-caliber pistol. James Click, 29, a parttime employee at Dino's Pizza here, was held for investigation of homicide.

Sharon Reeser, 17, who was staying with the victim, said Click and the girl started arguing "and before I knew it he had a gun and emptied it into her."

More Lockheed Talks

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Lockheed Aircraft Co. and the International Assn. of Machinists have agreed to resume negotiations Friday, but the union still has a strike scheduled for next Wednesday.

A strike would affect work on many important defense jobs, including the Polaris missile project. Lockheed said such work would be slowed down, but not stopped.

Weinberger Backed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Republican State Chairman Caspar W. Weinberger, recently criticized by outgoing assembly minority leader Joseph Shell, has drawn strong support from three Republican lawmakers seeking Shell's job.

The three, joined by the present Republican Assembly whip, issued this statement yesterday:

"Cap Weinberger has had our respect and loyalty for many years. He is a hard-working, capable leader, and all Republicans should unite behind him and the program he and the state committee, under his leadership, are developing."

The statement came from Assemblymen Charles J. Conrad of Sherman Oaks, Robert Monagan of Tracy and Howard Thelin of Glendale, all candidates for the minority leader's post, and from the Republican whip Don Mulford of Berkeley, now seeking the post of caucus chairman.

NATO Spy Arrested

PARIS (UPI) — A 26-year-old French soldier has been arrested on espionage charges for allegedly giving NATO defense plans to a military attache of the communist Romanian Embassy, police revealed today.

Police identified the man only as second class soldier Pierre-Henri P..... The last name in such cases customarily is not disclosed to the public.

More Smoking

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Smoking has increased in the past three decades along with the incidence of lung cancer, Dr. Morton Loeb Levin of New York said yesterday.

Levin, of the Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, said scientific evidence reveals that tobacco smoking and lung cancer are linked.

Cigarette smoking in the last 30 years has increased about 700 per cent, he said. There has been a "marked increase in the incidence of lung cancer" in that period, he said.

Fraternity Quits

STANFORD (UPI) — Members of the Stanford University chapter of Sigma Nu fraternity voted unanimously yesterday to break its 71-year tie with the national organization.

Chapter President Thomas Grey said the action climaxed a two-year effort to eliminate discriminatory clauses from the national charter. He said the group, which became Stanford's first fraternity in 1891, would become a local fraternity.

"It is becoming increasingly difficult to find good pledges who are willing to accept membership in an organization which denies admittance to people on purely racial grounds," Grey said.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Pope Intervenes

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII intervened today in the Roman Catholic Ecumenical Council and ordered a new study of a controversial theological thesis considered important for Christian unity.

The Pope said the thesis—on divine revelation and its sources—should be examined jointly by the council's Theological Commission, the Vatican Secretariat for Christian Unity, and a number of cardinals.

His action, announced by a spokesman, amounted to a success for progressive elements inside the council. They had argued that the thesis either be shelved or rewritten in the interest of interchurch relations.

Holiday Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy and his family were to leave the nation's capital today to spend the Thanksgiving weekend at Hyannis Port, Mass.

New Computer For Vehicle Department

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Department of Motor Vehicles today signed a contract for a one-million-dollar electronic computer to handle vehicle registration and billing.

The contract calls for delivery of the Philco S-2000 system next April 1, with limited operation scheduled for midsummer.

The system will eventually replace the department's data processing equipment and most of the more than 130-million punched cards which now keep track of California's vehicle registration, ownership records, transfers and bills.

Mail For Mosca

The postcard was addressed to the village of Felino in the district of Mosca.

Mosca is the Italian name for Moscow, and the card went off to the Soviet capital. The Moscow postoffice sent it back.

'LITTLE BERLIN' — Ted Weitzel, owner of Lady Baltimore Bakery at 1914 Fourth Street, San Rafael, looks at "art" work on the temporary wall that blocks customers at Foster Freeze next door from using his property for parking.

SWASTIKAS, PAINT

Barrier Is Turned Into A 'Berlin Wall'

Vandals last night turned a plywood parking barrier at a Miracle Mile bakery into a "Berlin Wall" with swastikas on one side and "East Berlin Reds" scrawled on the other.

The barrier, of plywood, was put up yesterday by Ted A. Weitzel, owner of the Lady Baltimore Bakery at 1914 Fourth Street, San Rafael, to block the bakery lot from use for parking by customers of a Foster Freeze stand next door. Weitzel said it also fences off the area where he plans a $40,000 store addition.

No sooner was the wall up, Weitzel said, than a gang of about 20 young men threatened to tear it down.

This morning, one side was adorned with swastikas, German phrases and the label "West Berlin" in brown paint. On the other side appeared "East Berlin Reds."

Parkers from the next-door establishment have given him trouble in the past, Weitzel said. Three times, backing cars plate glass window in the side of the bakery nearest the drive-in stand. Weitzel finally had the window protected with steel bars.

Ex-Convict Captured After Chase

An ex-convict from Point Reyes, who slugged a Marin deputy sheriff, was recaptured last evening after a half mile foot chase through the hills of Inverness.

Hubert Miles Langley, 43, a milker at the Domingo Grossi-Ranch at Point Reyes, was in Marin County Jail today on suspicion of forgery and resisting arrest. His bail is $3,150, and the state parole officer had a hold on him.

About 3:30 p.m. yesterday Ralph Cheda told Deputy Sheriff Robert F. Bertrand that Langley had tried to cash a $4 check at Vonsen Feed and Milling Co. but had been refused because a call to the bank showed Langley had no account.

A short time later, Bertrand stopped Langley at Inverness for questioning.

In Langley's car were an open bottle of wine and new clothing, watches and wallets. He did not have a driver's license.

Bertrand placed Langley under arrest. As he put handcuffs on Langley's right hand, Langley swung with his left, hitting the officer on the chin, then ran with the handcuffs on his right hand.

Deputy Bertrand fired a warning shot, but Langley kept running.

Truck drivers Thomas James Barfield Jr. of Bolinas and Jack Clifton Pinckney Jr. of Novato drove by and helped the officer chase Langley down about a half mile down Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Inspector Guido Battaglia said Langley had passed a $223 check at the Palace Food Market yesterday. He said the check appears to be a forgery.

Langley served two terms in San Quentin for bad checks. He was released last June on parole, Inspector Battaglia reported.

Castro and William Gnoss voted "no."

Gnoss immediately nominated Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato as "from my district and representing the commuters." Hardcastle is a Pacific Far East Lines executive.

"I don't want to vote against Graham," murmured Fusselman reflectively, apparently abstaining, while a tie built up with Behr and Gnoss favoring Hardcastle, Ludy and Castro voting "no."

Fusselman then said that since his abstention would be counted as a "yes" vote, he would vote negative "without prejudice to Mr. Hardcastle."

The board then agreed informally to continue to next Tuesday.

Four years ago, Graham won reappointment by 4-1 vote, with Vera Schultz, then supervisor from South Marin, as the dissenter. His confirmation came after a two-week delay occasioned by Castro, who blamed Graham as possibly responsible for a law denying Marin County more than two bridge district directors until its population reaches 500,000. After the delay, Castro said he had learned Graham was not responsible for the restriction.

Marin's other director is Leland S. Murphy of Inverness, whose present term runs to 1964.

Misprinted Dag Stamps On Sale

WASHINGTON (AP)—The sale of deliberately misprinted Dag Hammarskjold postage stamps has been resumed following an out-of-court settlement suit which halted the sale for several days.

The Post Office Department said yesterday that Leonard Sherman, an Irvington, N.J., collector who had 50 of the original accidentally misprinted stamps, had dropped his federal court suit.

Sale of the deliberate misprints began immediately with about 600,000 in stock.

Charges Answered By Silva

Novato Mayor M. E. Silva today answered recall charges filed against him Monday by Alfred W. Bowman.

Bowman, in the recall papers, charged Silva with representing special interests and not the majority of the people in favoring a freeway through Novato on the present Highway 101 route. He also charged Silva with being against a master plan for the city.

Silva in his answer said he owns no property on any of the proposed routes and represented "no interests, special or otherwise." He said that when he was elected to the council he felt a viaduct along the present route would be best. After study, he was convinced that a route to the east would be best for the city.

"I would still prefer a far easterly by-pass but cannot agree with certain downtown property owners that any route is better than the present one," Silva wrote.

On the charge of not favoring a master plan, Silva said he had seen other cities where "adherence to plans has unfairly blocked otherwise logical development." He said he believed "a master plan should be used as a guide."

Southern California robbery gang. Brown said Cisneros had cooperated with police and had refused to conspire with Ditson to frame an innocent man for the crime.

The governor said Sheriff Peter Pitchess of Los Angeles told him that Cisneros' cooperation aided in the successful prosecution of the case.

Trial testimony showed that Ward was slain because he threatened to expose the robbery ring unless he received a larger share of the loot. Cisneros beat Ward with a hammer, stuffed him into the trunk of his car, and took him to Ditson's house. The pair then drove into the desert, where Ditson shot Ward to death. They dismembered the body and buried it in two graves.

'LITTLE BERLIN' — Ted Weitzel, owner of Lady Baltimore Bakery at 1914 Fourth Street, San Rafael, looks at "art" work on the temporary wall that blocks customers at Foster Freeze next door from using his property for parking.

SWASTIKAS, PAINT

Barrier Is Turned Into A 'Berlin Wall'

Vandals last night turned a plywood parking barrier at a Miracle Mile bakery into a "Berlin Wall" with swastikas on one side and "East Berlin Reds" scrawled on the other.

The barrier, of plywood, was put up yesterday by Ted A. Weitzel, owner of the Lady Baltimore Bakery at 1914 Fourth Street, San Rafael, to block the bakery lot from use for parking by customers of a Foster Freeze stand next door. Weitzel said it also fences off the area where he plans a $40,000 store addition.

No sooner was the wall up, Weitzel said, than a gang of about 20 young men threatened to tear it down.

This morning, one side was adorned with swastikas, German phrases and the label "West Berlin" in brown paint. On the other side appeared "East Berlin Reds."

Parkers from the next-door establishment have given him trouble in the past, Weitzel said. Three times, backing cars plate glass window in the side of the bakery nearest the drive-in stand. Weitzel finally had the window protected with steel bars.

Ex-Convict Captured After Chase

An ex-convict from Point Reyes, who slugged a Marin deputy sheriff, was recaptured last evening after a half mile foot chase through the hills of Inverness.

Hubert Miles Langley, 43, a milker at the Domingo Grossi-Ranch at Point Reyes, was in Marin County Jail today on suspicion of forgery and resisting arrest. His bail is $3,150, and the state parole officer had a hold on him.

About 3:30 p.m. yesterday Ralph Cheda told Deputy Sheriff Robert F. Bertrand that Langley had tried to cash a $4 check at Vonsen Feed and Milling Co. but had been refused because a call to the bank showed Langley had no account.

A short time later, Bertrand stopped Langley at Inverness for questioning.

In Langley's car were an open bottle of wine and new clothing, watches and wallets. He did not have a driver's license.

Bertrand placed Langley under arrest. As he put handcuffs on Langley's right hand, Langley swung with his left, hitting the officer on the chin, then ran with the handcuffs on his right hand.

Deputy Bertrand fired a warning shot, but Langley kept running.

Truck drivers Thomas James Barfield Jr. of Bolinas and Jack Clifton Pinckney Jr. of Novato drove by and helped the officer chase Langley down about a half mile down Sir Francis Drake Boulevard.

Inspector Guido Battaglia said Langley had passed a $223 check at the Palace Food Market yesterday. He said the check appears to be a forgery.

Langley served two terms in San Quentin for bad checks. He was released last June on parole, Inspector Battaglia reported.

Three Holiday Periods Can Be Either Happy Or Tragic

Tomorrow starts the first of three holiday periods which should be filled with happiness, friendliness and good will.

It is tragically true, however, that each of these three holidays, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's, bring tragedy, sorrow and suffering because of highway accidents.

It is horrifying to think that about 500 persons who start out for a Thanksgiving drive will never return home. And to make it worse, between 15,000 and 17,000 others will receive disabling injuries in just the next three days alone.

These chilling figures should always keep us aware of the dangers of the highways, alert to our own responsibilities behind the wheels of our own cars.

Yet although the totals of traffic tolls continues to mount year by year, we can take solace from the fact we're doing a better job of driving and of safety when you consider the tremendous growth of the number of cars.

In 1945, for example, there were 11.5 deaths for each 100 million vehicle miles driven. As of last year, that rate had been cut to 5.2 deaths, a reduction of more than half over the 17 years.

We're doing better behind the wheel and it's much safer for you to be on the highways today that it was only a few years ago. But averages don't do you any good personally. If you're involved in an accident, you don't care whether you had one chance in 1000 or two chances in 1000 to be in that accident. The fact is that you're in it; you'll be the injured or the dead and averages won't help at all.

Automobiles have killed more than 1,350,000 Americans in recent years. That's more than the 1,228,000 servicemen kill in all eight major wars in which this country has fought.

If our highways are more dangerous than the battlefield, it is up to each of us individually to make it safe for himself and for others on the highway, just as we would help each other in the trenches. That means driving care—by everyone.

Have a happy — and safe — Thanksgiving.

ONE-OF-A-KIND WEDDING GIFT

There's one way to be certain that the gift you give a bride will not be returned for something else.

When Stella Peel of Whorlton, England, married Dennis Ardus, an explorer, she "received" one wedding gift that was not exchangeable.

A mountain peak in the Antarctic had been named "Stella" in honor of her marriage by a group of explorer friends of her husband.

A gift of this kind is a rare tribute. Every bride naturally expects and deserves to be honored on her wedding day.

But she should take care at the same time not to become so preoccupied with the incidentals that she gives scant attention to the tremendous significance of the marriage itself.

Focus primary attention on the unique privilege of husbands and wives in cooperating with the Creator by generating new life and then every gift will take on a holy significance.

"What therefore God has joined together, let no man put asunder."
(Mark 10:9)

Grant, O Lord, that all married couples will keep ever conscious of the great privilege You entrust to them.

Sometimes The Infant Stage Of Growing Up Is Best Remembered

NEW YORK (AP)—One of the learned discussions of parenthood is: When are children at their best?

Children themselves are fascinated by this kind of talk, as people are always interested in discussions of mankind as it used to be. Children also like to be told about how they were before they remember.

In our house we have only one child under middle-age, a daughter, Tracy Ann, who is 9.

"With all the trouble and the dearness that you are now, our experience with you up till now is that you were never more responsive to our love than when we held you over our shoulder, patted you —and you burped. That was our family peak—no matter what you study in the fourth grade," we tell her.

Correction to the previous paragraph. That is what I tell my wife and daughter.

What my wife says is: "How can you talk that way to a child?"

"You mean her or you?" I ask.

"It is the way I feel as of now."

"Well, that is no attitude you should have toward your duty of raising a child that will express our mutual desire for her to—"

"You mean," I ask, "that if we work to send her to college she will be more fun then afterward than she was when we burped her?"

"Yes," says Frances, my wife, with her usual sense of certainty. "Children are often most rewarding when they are in their teens."

"Name just two," I demand, "from Adam to Adenauer."

My wife thinks this challenge is rather ridiculous. So does my daughter, who is always on her mother's side. Perhaps we discuss our child more freely in her presence than we ought—but she is usually there.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Our own opinion is that if Boyle had more than one child, he would listen to them more rather than tell them.)

(Boyle's Note: No matter how many they are—tell 'em now and listen to them later.)

At this point my daughter, Tracy Ann, usually intervenes and asks, "Don't you think you'll like me just as much when I'm a teen-ager, daddy?"

"WELL," I REPLY, "of course, I know you're in a hurry to be a teen-ager, and that's very important to you.

"But can I show you what I mean? Let me hold you again as I did before, and put you over my shoulder, and oh, you wouldn't understand, and—"

"Oh, Daddy, put me down," cries Tracy. "You know I have to do my arithmetic."

And Frances sighs pleasantly, and says:

"Well, you may have a point. But you can't keep them in diapers forever, can you? And she is growing up, isn't she? Men are such fools about daughters!"

Aren't they?

Parts Of Tiburon More First Class

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Apparently the Board of Supervisors thinks so on the basis of its denial to permit Mrs. Molly Lowell to operate an arts and crafts school for children in old Tiburon after having set a precedent last spring when the board granted a use permit for a nursery school in residential Bel Aire in spite of just as many protests.

Justice seems even more strained when you know that the privately-owned business of this nursery school duplicates a service already offered in the area by a non-profit corporation in a conforming-use zone and that there was not and is not an excess demand while Mrs. Lowell is attempting to provide a unique service for young people that is not available on any basis, private, non-profit, nor public, and for which there is a real local need.

Supervisors Behr, Castro, and Gnoss are at least consistent in that Behr voted no in both cases pertaining to his district while the latter two were in the affirmative each time. Perhaps Fusselman and Ludy, both of whom approved the nursery school but not the art school, feel that all people are equal but some are more equal.

Either both schools should be permitted to operate or both schools should not. The board should give reasonable explanation for the distinction made or it should reconsider Mrs. Lowell's application.

It is not just the Bel Aire property owners who are interested in knowing if some first-class residential zones are more first-class than others.

Citizens Should Protest TV Show

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

I can just picture the Communists and other Disloyals in this country, and perhaps a few Democrats, ghoulishly drooling and licking their chops at the sight of the King Buzzard himself, convicted traitor Alger Hiss, picking over the bones of a loyal citizen and former statesman of this country. The ABC telecast of "The Political Obituary of Richard Nixon" was in my opinion the ultimate in broadcasting faux pas. Not only did Mr. Hagerty and Mr. Smith err in allowing Mr. Hiss to have the last word over Mr. Nixon, but they picked a very poor time to do it. There was this little item of Veterans' Day, and the broadcasting company just happened to scrap a Tribute to Veterans Program in order to give top billing to Mr. Hiss.

I think our veterans deserve better consideration than to receive a spot second only to a Communist traitor.

I urge all good Americans, especially Governor Brown, to loudly protest the actions of the network, not because of his love for Richard Nixon, but to show that we insist on better treatment for our citizens regardless of political position and for our fighting men, past and present!

Cuban Affair Has Sharpened Conflict Between Soviet, China

WASHINGTON—In an extraordinary measure, the Cuban affair has sharpened the unending conflict between the Soviet leaders and their Chinese Communist "brothers."

To be sure, the conflict had reached an extremely ugly stage before the Cuban crisis boiled up. There was, for instance, the violent editorial of Oct. 13 in Zeri I Populit, the Albanian official paper, in which the Chinese often make statements they do not wish to publish over their own signatures.

This effusion was headed "A Great Betrayal of Marxism-Leninism"; and it left no doubt that the betrayer was nobody else but Nikita S. Khrushchev. Since the Cuban crisis, however, the language the Chinese formerly put into the mouths of the Albanians has been openly used by the highest personages in Peking.

THE MAJOR attacks began with a leading article in the official Peking People's Daily, pointedly and unkindly quoting "imperialists" who had claimed a "major triumph" for President Kennedy in Cuba. The same article indirectly but sharply characterized the Kennedy-Khrushchev agreement as a "hoax."

Since then, the Chinese ideological barrage has been almost continuous. "Modern revisionists" (meaning Khrushchev and his supporters) have been repeatedly accused of "betraying" the Communist cause.

THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY of the October Revolution in Russia has been oddly celebrated by roars of praise for Fidel Castro, by loud warnings against "surrender" to the "imperialists," and by the conspicuous omission of a single complimentary word for Khrushchev.

Most recently, the official theoretical journal of the Chinese Communist party has suggested that the wicked revisionists (always meaning Khrushchev) were "scared stiff" of the "U. S. policy of strength." And these vicious attacks have been coupled with rather open invitations to Castro, to cast off his Soviet alliance and line up with the Chinese in the split among Communist parties.

Such outbursts go far beyond any of the fraternal plain-speaking in the first two rounds of the Sino-Soviet row. They betoken the opening of a great gulf between Moscow and Peking, far different from the cracks that were plastered over in the past. How, then, will Khrushchev reply?

AMONG THE professional students of Soviet and Chinese demonology, the suspicion is rising that the Bulgarian Party Congress was the first installment of Khrushchev's reply to the Chinese. At Sofia, the Chinese delegate, Wu Hsiu-chuan, made one of the most vicious anti-Khrushchev speeches heard to date from any Chinese.

But Wu Hsiu-chuan could not prevent the Khrushchevite, Zhivkov, from taking complete control of the Bulgarian party, atfer ruthlessly purging the "Stalinist," Yugov, and all other potential sympathizers. The ejection of all possible friends of the Chinese is the point to note.

With New Offices, Supervisors Might Try Modern Meeting Plan

When Marin supervisors move soon into their new Civic Center quarters it would be a fine time for procedural housecleaning.

Their weekly meetings are cumbersome, unwieldly and antiquated. Much of their horse-and-buggy practice should be junked.

Far from a revolutionary idea, this notion of swapping obsolescence for something more modern and streamlined is only what individual supervisors have from time to time sought in detail.

But the attack has been sporadic. Some advances have been dropped.

YEARS AGO when an official agenda was first adopted, it was considered seriously and handled with forethought. Supervisor Bill Fusselman says he worked nights on each one for a while.

If anything of that sort was needed years back, it is needed far more today. Yet the job is left to the clerk's office to be dealt with as routine.

This isn't in the least a reflection on those to whom it is entrusted. But the agenda preparation today needs careful direction with power to winnow, instruct and prepare on the executive level.

A good preliminary to such work by probably an Agenda Committee meeting weekly would be for the board to instruct someone—I'd suggest a combination of the administrator and the assistant auditor—to conduct a fresh analysis of Tuesday business.

ANY TUESDAY could be picked, or several. A report should then go to the board suggesting ways that this business could be dealt with quicker and better. There's amazing deadwood getting into every agenda now.

Basically things are going to the board more or less upside down. Why waste the time of five supervisors at preliminary stages? Let them get problems already processed by appropriate people to whom they should be directed as a matter of routine, probably by the Agenda Committee.

At this stage I hear a familiar cry—"You're tryiing to make us just a rubber stamp!"

It's a fear of pathological type and our supervisors should have enough confidence in themselves to banish any such notion. Why are they hiring a lot of high-priced competent help if not to let it aid them by assembling facts and making recommendations?

Logic and good management call for more time spent at the policy decision level and for elimination of much of the preliminary delay, bother and personal traipsing of the supervisors on minor chores.

I SEE NO reason why every letter to the supervisors, however trivial or downright silly, has to be read out in open meeting. That's hick stuff. There are ways to give the taxpayers due attention and better service.

One of the biggest supervisor-sins is to play Big Daddy to county employees for about half of the board's time. These employees number about 760 out of a total Marin County population of around 166,000, more than 200-1 ratio.

We have able department heads to handle the county housekeeping, but only the supervisors to look after affairs directly those of taxpayers. In my view if they gave something under 1/200th of their time, rather than closer to half, to details of county routine management it would be plenty.

Again, I'm suggesting nothing to detract from the supervisors' authority. Rather I emphasize their obligations on the policy level.

LET THEM KEEP policies complete and up-to-date and they would have ample time to attend to the things that really matter to and interest the taxpayers.

On everything relating only to the job of keeping the store going, the supervisors ought to ask "Is it necessary that we personally handle this?" Chances are their part, if any, could finally be handled quickly. But they must want this.

Crisp, well-planned board meetings might even attract visitors. At present nobody comes unless he has urgent business or is suffering from insomnia.

From the moment Sherlock Holmes became a byword in England, his creator, A. Conan Doyle, was pestered by people of all kind demanding solutions of problems that perplexed them. A lady who sat next to Doyle at a large dinner, for instance, annoyed him greatly. "Mr. Doyle," she asked so loudly that all other conversation at the table ceased, "there has disappeared from the inside of my country home within a single week one broom, one box of golf balls, a left riding boot, a dictionary, and six tin plates. What would Sherlock Holmes do in a spot like that?" "Very simple," snapped Conan Doyle. "Sherlock Holmes would tell you that you keep a goat in your home."

"Twas on her deathbed that old Maggie Murphy whispered to her husband, "Mike, give me your hand." Mike reached out his massive paw, and teary-eyed, exclaimed, "Maggie, me girl, it's a hand that never was raised against ye."

A light of battle returned to Maggie Murphy's eyes. "It's a damn good thing for you it wasn't," she declared loudly —and died with a smile on her lips.

Such outbursts go far beyond any of the fraternal plain-speaking in the first two rounds of the Sino-Soviet row. They betoken the opening of a great gulf between Moscow and Peking, far different from the cracks that were plastered over in the past. How, then, will Khrushchev reply?

AMONG THE professional students of Soviet and Chinese demonology, the suspicion is rising that the Bulgarian Party Congress was the first installment of Khrushchev's reply to the Chinese. At Sofia, the Chinese delegate, Wu Hsiu-chuan, made one of the most vicious anti-Khrushchev speeches heard to date from any Chinese.

But Wu Hsiu-chuan could not prevent the Khrushchevite, Zhivkov, from taking complete control of the Bulgarian party, atfer ruthlessly purging the "Stalinist," Yugov, and all other potential sympathizers. The ejection of all possible friends of the Chinese is the point to note.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

From the moment Sherlock Holmes became a byword in England, his creator, A. Conan Doyle, was pestered by people of all kind demanding solutions of problems that perplexed them. A lady who sat next to Doyle at a large dinner, for instance, annoyed him greatly. "Mr. Doyle," she asked so loudly that all other conversation at the table ceased, "there has disappeared from the inside of my country home within a single week one broom, one box of golf balls, a left riding boot, a dictionary, and six tin plates. What would Sherlock Holmes do in a spot like that?" "Very simple," snapped Conan Doyle. "Sherlock Holmes would tell you that you keep a goat in your home."

"Twas on her deathbed that old Maggie Murphy whispered to her husband, "Mike, give me your hand." Mike reached out his massive paw, and teary-eyed, exclaimed, "Maggie, me girl, it's a hand that never was raised against ye."

A light of battle returned to Maggie Murphy's eyes. "It's a damn good thing for you it wasn't," she declared loudly —and died with a smile on her lips.

Thanksgiving Spells T-U-R-K-E-Y—Here's Where To Find It

Wherever eaten, Thanksgiving dinner for most Americans is still spelled t-u-r-k-e-y, served to the accompaniment of dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cranberry sauce and pumpkin pie — and no holds barred on the wishbone.

Marin restaurateurs will observe that tradition tomorrow in one of two ways—either by staying open and fashioning menus to suit the occasion, or closing their doors and whetting the carving knife for use at the home festive board. In the past they have been about equally divided. This year's odds have shifted slightly to favor more diners-out.

In our county-wide survey we came up with a round three dozen "open for Thanksgiving" declarations, with turkey as the guest of honor, but most places offering optional choices ranging all the way from baked ham, goose and lobster to roast duckling, prime rib, steaks and specialties a la maison.

Restaurants are well distributed, so there's no need to travel far if you don't plan to keep the home fires burning. But advance reservations in some cases may prove to be a time saver.

In Sausalito there is a choice of five. Alta Mira Hotel will serve dinners from 1 p.m. (or an earlier brunch), the Buckeye and Le Vivoir (Casa Madrona Hotel) both open from 2 to 10 p.m., Rico's from 2 to 11 p.m. and Peter Alioto's Arbordale Hof Brau from 11:30 a.m.

At Tiburon, the Dock has set dinner hours from 2 to 9:30 p.m., and Sam's Anchor Cafe, 12:30 to about 9 or 10 p.m. Kirby Atterbury's newly opened Caprice at last count was taking reservations for noon to 5 p.m. only. Neville's on the Boardwalk is not open but will cater complete Thanksgiving dinners and deliver as far north as San Rafael.

On the lower Redwood Highway, Sabella's and the Colonel's Ranch Wagon are both open—Sabella's from 11 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. and the Colonel's from 1 to 11 p.m. Mill Valley's three restaurants on Throckmorton Avenue will also serve —El Paseo from 2 to 10 p.m. Jacque's from noon to 7 p.m. and the Palate from 11:30 to 9 p.m.

Corte Madera will have two: Bob's of Marin and the Embers —from 2 to 2:30 respectively to 10 p.m.

The Blue Rock Inn, Larkspur, is open traditionally from 2 until 10 p.m. Confucius in Bon Air will serve through those same hours.

In San Anselmo you'll find Fleur de Lys open from 4:30 p.m. (make reservations), and the Ranch House serving dinners from 2 p.m.

Fairfax is a close-out, but West Marin has several opportunities. Villa Lucchesi in San Geronimo plans hours of 4 to 10 p.m. Lagunitas Gardens' schedule is from 1 to 10 p.m. Rancho Nicasio will observe its same hours of last year, 1 to 11 p.m. In Inverness: Drake's Arms from noon until 9 p.m., Inverness Lodge 1 to 8:30 p.m. Make reservations for any of the last three.

In and around San Rafael there are nine dinner spots open: The Cellars will serve from 5:30 to 11:30 p.m. (regular menu only), Dominic's from 1 until 10 p.m. Eugene's is open for breakfast only, but the Griddle will have dinners from 1 to 9 p.m. King Cotton opens at 7 a.m. but dinner service will be from noon until 10 p.m. Le Chalet (Santa Venetia) has set hours of 1 to 10 p.m.; Mission Inn, 2 to 10 p.m.; Travelers Inn from noon to 10 p.m. and Pete's Pier 15 will start dinner selections before noon. Peacock Gap Golf and Country Club has scheduled a 9 to noon brunch, golfer's special from noon to 2 p.m. and dinner from 3 to 9 p.m. Make reservations here.

In Ignacio dinners will be served at Galli's from 3:30 to 9:30 p.m. and at Rickey's Rancho Rafael from noon until 10 p.m.

Both Cloud 5 and Tomahawk Lodge in Novato are serving from 2 p.m.

Complete turkey dinners will be priced about the same as last year—from $2 to more than $5, according to each establishment's normal manner of service. Median range is $3 to $4.25. Other entrees may run higher.

Third Charity Named For Nicasio Benefit

A third charity was named today as beneficiary in proceeds of a Dec. 8 charity benefit at Rancho Nicasio.

Owner Nick Kobseff said the large-scale benefit, complete with wrestlers and the Pacific Ballet, "will definitely be held."

Proceeds will be split 50 per cent to Kobseff and 50 per cent to Handicapped International and the Paralyzed Veterans of America of San Francisco. Kobseff said his 50 per cent would be donated to Marin County charities.

Kobseff and Robert F. Yuill, west coast director of Handicapped International, whose purpose is to supply wheelchairs to handicapped person, had considered canceling the event when recognized Marin County charities refused to have their names listed as sponsors.

Participation of the paralyzed veterans organization was confirmed yesterday, Yuill said.

Expenses for the event will be split by Kobseff and Handicapped International, Yuill said.

Kobseff and Yuill said proceeds will be placed in an escrow account in a San Rafael bank and not released until a public accounting is made.

Stinson Beach Club Polling Members On Shoreline Plans

The Stinson Beach Progressive Club is polling its 225 Members on whether the proposed Shoreline Highway should be a scenic highway or full freeway, and whether the board of supervisors should reserve approval of the highway until assured the scenery will be protected.

The letter says the club recognizes the need for highway improvement, but, "subject to the approval of the membership, the club should take a stand urging that a proper balance be found between the need for traffic movement and the need to preserve the scenic values of Marin."

The California Highway Commission will hold a public hearing the highway at 10 a.m. on Nov. 29 at Mill Valley Park School.

Sausalito City Employees Set Fete

Sausalito city employees will have their Christmas banquet Dec. 1 at the Sausalito Cruising Club.

The dinner, besides being a Christmas get-together for employees, their husbands and wives, honors retiring employees and those who have completed long periods of service.

Long service awards will be given to Mrs. Hazel Pierachini, deputy finance officer, and Fire Capt. Harold R. Cardwell, who have served 15 years. Also to be given awards will be Police Chief Howard Goerndt and Building Inspector William L. Hynes, who have completed 10 years of service.

The banquet and program is being planned by an employees committee consisting of Mrs. Pierachini, Ralph K. Pedersen, Edward Souze, and John Higgins.

Education Conference

Tamalpais Evening School Principal Harry G. Russell will attend the 38th annual fall conference Nov. 28-30 of the California Assn. of Adult Education Administrators in Sacramento.

Coward Dies Thousand Deaths While Playing Bridge Game

At least that's what they say at New York's fancy Regency Club, and they have a hand to prove it.

If you don't like East's vulnerable overcall of two hearts you'll have to argue with Walter Malowan, dean of the experts at the Regency Club.

UNORTHODOX

He has been making slightly unorthodox bids like this since the days of auction bridge, and it's hard to quarrel with his success.

Obviously, Malowan was not the coward. The timid gentleman played the South cards.

South won the first heart trick and drew two rounds of trumps to make sure nobody ruffed anything. Unfortunately, he put himself on the list of people who couldn't ruff.

AFTER SPADES

South had to go after the spades to have any real chance for his slam.

He led a spade to dummy's queen, winning the finesse. Declarer next cashed the ace of spades and ruffed a spade in his hand.

Unfortunately, the spades failed to break. South still had to lose a heart and a club.

NO HARM

There was no harm in drawing one round of trumps, but South was a coward to draw the second trump. He should start the spades after just one trump.

He ruffs the third spade, enters dummy with the nine of trumps, and ruffs another spade with a high trump.

By this time dummy's last spade is good, and South can lead a trump to dummy's ten to cash the good spade.

South's cowardly second round of trumps cost him 1740 points.

WINNING BRIDGE

Coward Dies Thousand Deaths While Playing Bridge Game

At least that's what they say at New York's fancy Regency Club, and they have a hand to prove it.

If you don't like East's vulnerable overcall of two hearts you'll have to argue with Walter Malowan, dean of the experts at the Regency Club.

UNORTHODOX

He has been making slightly unorthodox bids like this since the days of auction bridge, and it's hard to quarrel with his success.

Obviously, Malowan was not the coward. The timid gentleman played the South cards.

South won the first heart trick and drew two rounds of trumps to make sure nobody ruffed anything. Unfortunately, he put himself on the list of people who couldn't ruff.

AFTER SPADES

South had to go after the spades to have any real chance for his slam.

He led a spade to dummy's queen, winning the finesse. Declarer next cashed the ace of spades and ruffed a spade in his hand.

Unfortunately, the spades failed to break. South still had to lose a heart and a club.

NO HARM

There was no harm in drawing one round of trumps, but South was a coward to draw the second trump. He should start the spades after just one trump.

He ruffs the third spade, enters dummy with the nine of trumps, and ruffs another spade with a high trump.

By this time dummy's last spade is good, and South can lead a trump to dummy's ten to cash the good spade.

South's cowardly second round of trumps cost him 1740 points.

'DREAM GAME'

10,000 May See Clash For Title

By JIM GILMARTIN
I-J Sports-Editor

A football game that just has to be the figment of a Hollywood script writer's imagination will be enacted in real life drama tomorrow morning when the Tamalpais Indians and the Redwood Giants do battle for the undisputed championship of the Marin County Athletic League.

As fantastic as it may seem, interest in this "dream game" has been so intense that a crowd of 10,000 has been predicted to overflow the 6,500-seat College of Marin stadium in Kentfield, according to Robert Troppmann, director of athletics and head football coach at Redwood, the host school.

Said Troppmann, "The advance ticket sale has been so heavy that we expect at least 10,000."

If this is so, a Marin County sports attendance record will be broken. Largest previous estimated crowds at high school or college games here have been around 8,000.

Originally scheduled for Oct. 13, the meeting between the rival schools was rained out and rescheduled for Thanksgiving Day, traditionally a colorful football date across the nation, but never before tried in Marin. That Tam and Redwood have approached this stage of the season with undefeated records in league play adds tremendously to the dramatic aspects of the contest.

Gates Open At 9, Kickoff At 10:30

Ticket windows and gates will open at 9 a.m., well in advance of the opening kickoff scheduled at 10:30. The weather forecast is for partly cloudy skies with temperatures in the 60s.

If odds-makers were to make book on this game they'd probably call it 6-5 and take your pick, the teams appear so evenly matched. Each features tremendous defensive muscles, but each has enough offensive weapons to make it interesting.

In their five victories over mutual league opponents, they've given up only six points apiece and have registered four shutouts. Tam has the better overall record, including practice games, with seven straight victories after a tie in the season opener, while Redwood lost its three pre-league games before launching its ever-improving five-game win streak.

Redwood will be seeking its third MAL title in the last four years while title-starved Tam hasn't grabbed the gridiron golden ring since 1951 in the old North Bay League. Also at stake will be the Tamalpais District trophy.

Natural Rivalry Between The Schools

A natural rivalry has developed for this one. Said rookie Coach Pete Belden of Tam, "Our kids would like nothing better than to whip Redwood. They've always felt that way."

Countered Bob Troppmann, "The feeling is mutual."

Coach Belden's Indians were jolted this week with the announcement that two key first stringers will be unable to play because of injuries suffered in Tam's rugged 15-6 victory over Novato last Saturday. They are quarterback Bill Gillingham with a pulled ligament in his leg and middle linebacker Tony Houston with a badly sprained ankle. Gillingham will be replaced by Cedric Collet and Houston alternately by the Johnson twins, Dale and Donn, regular first string offensive guards.

The loss of Gillingham was especially tough because he has gained 128 yards in MAL play and his added threat kept defenses guessing. Collet, on the other hand, has minus eight yards rushing in league play. Gillingham has picked up much of his yardage off the shotgun attack on sweeps around the ends.

Redwood Squad Is Physically Perfect

Another Tam casualty is linebacker Rich Hamilton, hobbled by a sore ankle. However, he is expected to play and has been listed as a starter by defensive coach Mike Davlin.

Redwood's Troppmann, meanwhile, announces his Giants physically perfect.

Tam is primarily a rushing team with such race horses as the great Warren Domino, Tracy Oldham and Ev White striking off the Wing-T offense that Belden installed so effectively in this, his first season as head mentor.

Domino, who wears No. 44, is an exciting runner whose legs churn relentlessly when he's carrying the bacon. In the five league games he's rolled up 473 yards on 70 carries for a 6.8 average, best in the county. He's an All-Northern California candidate.

Oldham is Tam's next leading rusher with 254 total yards.

Tam is next to last in passing offense in the league and isn't expected to go skyward much tomorrow. Hence,

Bears Vs. Indians

BERKELEY (AP) — California coach Marv Levy put his Bears through a "short, but rugged" session yesterday to fire them up for the big Saturday clash with Stanford.

Meanwhile, arch-rival coach Jack Curtice had his team rough it up a bit at Stanford, but concentrated on building morale.

"All the defensive plays in the world aren't any good unless you have desire," Curtice told the Indians in a pep talk on defense.

Levy and Curtice kept their squads behind closed gates for their workouts for the big game. California went through a tackling session and had a short scrimmage, Stanford went through a rugged 45-minute scrimmage.

Levy still declined to say whether quarterback Craig Morton will start Saturday. Morton, hurt in the Kansas game, went through the motions of yesterday's practice session, but was excluded from the scrimmage.

The sophomore wonder has become Cal's biggest drawing card in the four games he has played. He was out the first six weeks of the season with a bad leg. He dazzled fans in his first performance by completing 20 of 28 passes.

Curtice said Steve Thurlow probably would start in the quarterback slot for Stanford. Thurlow started most of Stanford's previous nine games, but Curtice started Clark Weaver against San Jose last Saturday.

The Stanford coach said he will also try to play all his seniors—all 10 of them.

MARIN TITLE GAME WILL BE BROADCAST

The big Thanksgiving day battle for the MCAL championship between Tam and Redwood will be broadcast live from College of Marin stadium over Radio Station KTIM starting at 10:30 a.m.

Doing the play-by-play broadcast will be Ted Mitchell, sports announcer for KTIM.

49ers Rated Over Cards

REDWOOD CITY (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers are one-point favorites over the St. Louis Cardinals when the two National Football League clubs meet at St. Louis Sunday.

It will be the first non-exhibition engagement between the two teams in five years.

Coach Red Hickey viewed films yesterday of San Francisco's 24-17 win over Los Angeles, which ended a four-game losing streak.

"I was generally satisfied. Of course, it would have been better if we hadn't made so many boo-boos and goofs such as fumbles and interceptions," he said.

St. Louis, mired in sixth place in the NFL's Eastern Division, lost its last outing 38-14 to the Cleveland Browns.

Novato, S.R. Clash

Although there will not be a championship at stake, the San Rafael High School Bulldogs will take on the Novato Hornets tomorrow morning at 10:30 on the San Rafael field.

The game will wind up the season for both teams, and it has been a long one for Bulldog head coach Bob Muster. His chargers have won only one game this season, while losing four league games and three practice tilts.

Novato had been in the thick of the race all season and lost two games, one to Redwood, 6-0, and the other to Tamalpais last Saturday, 15-6. The Hornets will be carrying a 3-2 league record and a 4-3-1 season mark into the arena tomorrow.

They will also be carrying the role of the favorite.

Novato features a tough defense and one of the most balanced lines in the league. The Hornets can grind out yardage on the ground and pass for yardage also. While gaining 531 yards on the ground in their first five games, the Hornets have passed for 456, giving them a total of 987 yards gained.

Their defense is third in the league, trailing Redwood and Tam, as the Hornets have allowed only 639 yards.

San Rafael has had a rough time this year, winning its only game against Marin Catholic (0-6) by a score of 19-0.

The Bulldogs can be thankful for the likes of a halfback by the name of Mike Shafer, who usually puts on a one-man show, as he did last Saturday when the Bulldogs were whipped by Terra Linda, 15-6.

In that game, Shafer earned the Independent-Journal's selection as the Prep of the Week by scoring the lone S.R. touchdown on an 85-yard scamper, collecting 128 yards rushing and receiving two passes for 16 yards. He has totaled 469 yards on the ground and trails league-leading Warren Domino of Tam by only four yards.

The starting offensive lineup for Novato:

Novato, S.R. Clash

Although there will not be a championship at stake, the San Rafael High School Bulldogs will take on the Novato Hornets tomorrow morning at 10:30 on the San Rafael field.

The game will wind up the season for both teams, and it has been a long one for Bulldog head coach Bob Muster. His chargers have won only one game this season, while losing four league games and three practice tilts.

Novato had been in the thick of the race all season and lost two games, one to Redwood, 6-0, and the other to Tamalpais last Saturday, 15-6. The Hornets will be carrying a 3-2 league record and a 4-3-1 season mark into the arena tomorrow.

They will also be carrying the role of the favorite.

Novato features a tough defense and one of the most balanced lines in the league. The Hornets can grind out yardage on the ground and pass for yardage also. While gaining 531 yards on the ground in their first five games, the Hornets have passed for 456, giving them a total of 987 yards gained.

Their defense is third in the league, trailing Redwood and Tam, as the Hornets have allowed only 639 yards.

San Rafael has had a rough time this year, winning its only game against Marin Catholic (0-6) by a score of 19-0.

The Bulldogs can be thankful for the likes of a halfback by the name of Mike Shafer, who usually puts on a one-man show, as he did last Saturday when the Bulldogs were whipped by Terra Linda, 15-6.

In that game, Shafer earned the Independent-Journal's selection as the Prep of the Week by scoring the lone S.R. touchdown on an 85-yard scamper, collecting 128 yards rushing and receiving two passes for 16 yards. He has totaled 469 yards on the ground and trails league-leading Warren Domino of Tam by only four yards.

The starting offensive lineup for Novato:

'Experts' See Redwood Passes Vs. Tam Ground Attack

By MAURICE WEINGER

If Redwood's passing game is going to work against Tamalpais, the Giants will have to throw short, quick passes down the middle and if Tam's running game is going to move, it will have to go through a nine-man line.

That's the opinion of the "experts" when asked to evaluate both teams in tomorrow's championship game at College of Marin Stadium.

Both coaches, Bob Troppman of Redwood and Pete Belden of Tamalpais, are optimistic. Troppmann figures that, by mixing up the plays, he can penetrate for some scores. Belden's plans are to run his backs like the Indians have done in the past eight games. "My slowest back is averaging 4.8 yards a carry," Pete said when asked about any change in the offensive pattern.

However, other men of good football knowledge have spoken and this is a composite of their feelings toward both teams.

Redwood will have to pass quickly down the middle and not out to the sides because Tam's defense is geared for the play around the ends. This may hurt the Giants since one of quarterback Jim Troppmann's favorite pass pattern is the up and out pass to either end Joel Tobiason or Doug Houston.

Speed is the Indians' great value. They can hurt an opponent on almost any play with the likes of halfback Warren Domino, Tracy Oldham and Ev White. One of their favorite plays is a counter which the quarterback fakes a hand-off to Domino going left and then gives the ball to either White or Oldham coming back toward the right. It will mean Redwood must over shift its defense so it will not be strong to one specific side.

Two other factors concerning the teams must be mentioned. It is surprising to learn that most of the "experts" feel Tam is weak in the middle of the line on defense and plays up the middle by the Giants will have a good chance of going.

Redwood, on the other hand, can be had with runs around the ends as its linebackers are "good, but not fast" in stopping the Indian speedsters.

Here is a run down on some individual personnel:

REDWOOD

Quarterback Jim Troppmann —"The best passer I've coached," said the Redwood coach. Troppmann can thread a needle with a football, but the pass will have to be quick since he is not agile or fast enough to get out of the way of Tam's defensive ends who will be charging.

Ends Houston and Tobiason —Excellent on defense and will try to turn the plays in. If these two can contain the end around runs by Tam, the Giants will stop the Indians' biggest threat.

Halfback Dave Auerbach—A double threat offensive star. Not only can he run, but the halfback pass will keep the Indian defense honest. One expert called Auerbach, "the best runner in the league."

Fullback Steve Solinsky—Here's the player who has made the Giants go in the last three games. He has the power to go up the middle and the speed to block on runs around the end. If he can accomplish the latter, then Auerbach and Jerry Rumsay will open up the Indian defense.

Defensive linemen, Jim Carroll, Rick Klein and Jeff Teather—These three are the strongest part of the Redwood defense. Teather is a bull of a player. He hasn't been moved out of position yet in league play.

TAMALPAIS

Halfback Warren Domino—By statistics the best runner Marin County has produced in many years. Not only fast but powerful, Domino can fake the opponent out of position. On defense, he plays a tough left corner linebacking spot and is not fooled too much out of position.

Tackles Bob Washington, Fred Mack and Ted Broome—Broome replaces Mack on defense while Washington goes both ways. The latter plays the left side and most of the running plays go toward his side.

Defensive backs Ellis Williams, Don Johnston, Rich Hamilton and Bill McIntyre — Williams is the fastest sprinter in the league while the other three are not as fast but can cover the necessary ground. It will take a very fast man to get past these four to score on a long pass pattern as Williams can probably stay with any Redwood end or halfback.

Defensive ends Jim Durbin and Art Foster—The latter is the best in the business, while Durbin has good speed. Very few plays have gone around these boys so far this season.

All right there, you have a quick run down on some of the players. Now you Monday morning quarterbacks can go to work, analyze the situation and come up with a prediction as to the outcome.

DETROIT (AP) — A hopeless, frightening task, defeating and overtaking the unbeaten Green Bay Packers? It isn't so, claim the Detroit Lions.

"We should have beat them last time and I think we're going to win this time," said fullback Ken Webb after the Lions' completed a shivering, hurry-up workout yesterday.

"Sure, my boys have been pointing for this game ever since the last one," said Coach George Wilson, soundly criticized by his own Detroit players after the Lions fell 9-7 to the Packers Oct. 7.

The long-awaited rematch between the reigning National Football League Champions from Green Bay, current Western division leaders, and their closest pursuers from Detroit is Thursday at Tiger Stadium. Tickets have been as scarce as Packer defeats for the past month and a standing-room crowd of 55,000 will attend the annual Thanksgiving Day game.

It also will be seen by a national television audience via CBS starting at 9 a.m., PST.

None of the bitterness has left the Lions since their last meeting with the Packers. Detroit was leading 7-6 with time running out when Wilson told Milt Plum to pass, hoping to secure a first down.

Receiver Terry Barr slipped, Herb Adderley intercepted and returned the ball 41 yards. The Packers pulled it out on Paul Hornung's 21-yard field goal.

The Lions' offense since then has sputtered and their defense has carried them. They lost once more, by three points to the New York Giants, and now have an 8-2 record.

The proud Packers, shocked by being held without a touchdown by the Lions, meanwhile gained momentum and rolled to a 10-0 record with four games remaining. Last Sunday their blitzkrieg through the NFL was slowed a bit when they escaped with a 17-13 decision over Baltimore.

Pre-Game, Halftime Program For Fans

Football won't be the only attraction at Kentfield tomorrow when Tamalpais and Redwood high schools fight it out for the Marin Athletic League championship.

Both schools, bubbling over with excitement this week, will provide the anticipated huge crowd with pre-game and halftime entertainment.

In the pre-game activities, starting at 10:10 a.m., the Tamalpais High School marching band will perform while sharing the spotlight with Redwood High's football queen, Sue Broomhead, and her court of five princesses. Miss Broomhead was voted queen last month, but her big day was rained out and postponed until tomorrow along with the game.

She will lead a parade of floats around the track circling the gridiron in the pre-game show.

Both school bands will share the halftime entertainment, said Redwood Director of Athletics Bob Troppmann who arranged the program.

Tam Proud Of Defense And Speed

By PETE BELDEN
Tam Coach

Last spring the coaching staff at Tamalpais High School looked to the 1962 season with eagerness and enthusiasm. Spring practice revealed a host of experienced and talented athletes.

Tam's backfield, the fastest in Marin County and perhaps the North Bay area, has been performing beyond expectations. Warren Domino, a deserving all-Northern California candidate, Tracy Oldham, Ev White and Bill Gillingham have compiled an enviable rushing record.

The unsung heroes of the offensive line have consistently given outstanding performances. Steve Long at center and the Johnson twins, Dale and Donn, at guards, have done a great job at opening up holes in the center of the line. Tackles Fred Mack and Bob Washington, with ends Frank Shippey and Art Foster, have made the off tackle play the strongest and most consistent ground gainer.

BEST RECORD

Tam's strong defense has allowed only 25 points to be scored against it in eight games, the best record in the Marin Athletic League. Linebacker and defensive quarterback Bill McIntyre was probably the best linebacker in the league and has been a source of inspiration and leadership to the entire Tam team.

Richard Hamilton, the other linebacker, and wingbacks Domino and Steve Hewett have consistently played bruising football. Ends Jim Durbin and Art Foster have been outstanding in stacking up end runs and rushing the passer.

Tackles Tim Broome and Bob Washington, with middle guard Tony Houston, have virtually stopped running plays through the middle of the line. Defensive halfbacks Ellis Williams and Don Johnston are probably the fastest men and the surest tacklers in the league.

We attribute the success of the season to teamwork and it is hard to single out individuals when the entire team has done such an outstanding job.

Redwood Coach

With a tough schedule behind us, with wins over Drake, Novato, San Rafael, Terra Linda and Marin Catholic, and with a team that has improved in each outing, we feel that we are now ready to play our best game.

I do not like to single out any particular boys because this record has definitely been the result of a team effort, each member of our 30-man squad contributing to the cause. However, I do feel that two things have helped us in our undefeated league season: The tremendous work of our defensive unit which has given up only six points in league play and the return of key men to the lineup. I feel that we now have a well-balanced attack, and Coach Al Endriss has the backfield working in machine-like precision. Added to this is the fact that we are healthier now than we have been all season. We have the "Think Win" positive attitude at Redwood, and we definitely go into the "Turkey Bowl" with this same feeling. We, at Redwood, have high hopes of winning the 1962 pennant as well as the Tamalpais District Trophy. We will put out a 100 per cent effort to accomplish this.

Lions, Packers Replay Bruising Battle On TV Tomorrow Morning

HANLEY

There isn't a doubt pro football's game of the week will be played Thursday in Detroit. The kickoff is timed for 9:06 a.m. by local clocks. NFL fans need not be told this will be the second meeting of the season between the Lions and undefeated champion Packers or that the game will be nationally-televised, locally over Channel 5.

In their first meeting Oct. 7 at Green Bay, the Lions and Packers put on a bruiser, the champs winning 9-7. Detroit's deadly defense almost, but not quite, tamed Green Bay's beasts that day. Jim Taylor & Company couldn't crack the Lion forward wall and were forced to field goals for their victory.

That was a blow to Packer pride, particularly Taylor's. The Green Bay fullback hopes Packer coach Vince Lombardi will alter the usual Packer attack plans for the Thanksgiving Day rematch with Detroit. Lombardi's strategy is simple —hit the enemy at its strongest spot and crumble it, then the rest is easy. But Detroit's forward wall refused to be intimidated Oct. 7.

NO OTHER NFL team has been able to contain the Packer ground attack this season. Of the 39 touchdowns Green Bay has scored in its string of 10 consecutive victories, 30 have been on the ground, 14 of them by Taylor who now has a total of 1,121 yards in 196 carries—a 5.7 average.

Had it not been for Detroit's superb defense on Oct. 7, Taylor would be much closer to Jim Brown's all-time NFL mark of 1,527 yards set in 1958. The Cleveland fullback's average that year for 257 carries in 12 games was 5.9.

Taylor still needs 406 yards to tie Brown's record. It's possible, but not likely, that he will do it in 12 games since tomorrow's session with the Lions will be the Packers' 11th of the season. It is quite possible Taylor will crack Brown's mark in the current 14-game NFL schedule.

That may prompt NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle to asterisk Taylor's 14-game total in the same way Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick ordered 162-game asterisks for Roger Maris' 61 homers and Maury Wills' 104 stolen bases, thus keeping sacrosanct Babe Ruth's 60 homers and Ty Cobb's 96 stolen bases when 154 games constituted a baseball season.

Regardless of what Taylor personally does tomorrow, the Packers still should win it and continue unmolested to their third straight Western Division title and second straight world championship.

We have the "Think Win" positive attitude at Redwood, and we definitely go into the "Turkey Bowl" with this same feeling. We, at Redwood, have high hopes of winning the 1962 pennant as well as the Tamalpais District Trophy. We will put out a 100 per cent effort to accomplish this.

Lions, Packers Replay Bruising Battle On TV Tomorrow Morning

HANLEY

There isn't a doubt pro football's game of the week will be played Thursday in Detroit. The kickoff is timed for 9:06 a.m. by local clocks. NFL fans need not be told this will be the second meeting of the season between the Lions and undefeated champion Packers or that the game will be nationally-televised, locally over Channel 5.

In their first meeting Oct. 7 at Green Bay, the Lions and Packers put on a bruiser, the champs winning 9-7. Detroit's deadly defense almost, but not quite, tamed Green Bay's beasts that day. Jim Taylor & Company couldn't crack the Lion forward wall and were forced to field goals for their victory.

That was a blow to Packer pride, particularly Taylor's. The Green Bay fullback hopes Packer coach Vince Lombardi will alter the usual Packer attack plans for the Thanksgiving Day rematch with Detroit. Lombardi's strategy is simple —hit the enemy at its strongest spot and crumble it, then the rest is easy. But Detroit's forward wall refused to be intimidated Oct. 7.

NO OTHER NFL team has been able to contain the Packer ground attack this season. Of the 39 touchdowns Green Bay has scored in its string of 10 consecutive victories, 30 have been on the ground, 14 of them by Taylor who now has a total of 1,121 yards in 196 carries—a 5.7 average.

Had it not been for Detroit's superb defense on Oct. 7, Taylor would be much closer to Jim Brown's all-time NFL mark of 1,527 yards set in 1958. The Cleveland fullback's average that year for 257 carries in 12 games was 5.9.

Taylor still needs 406 yards to tie Brown's record. It's possible, but not likely, that he will do it in 12 games since tomorrow's session with the Lions will be the Packers' 11th of the season. It is quite possible Taylor will crack Brown's mark in the current 14-game NFL schedule.

That may prompt NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle to asterisk Taylor's 14-game total in the same way Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick ordered 162-game asterisks for Roger Maris' 61 homers and Maury Wills' 104 stolen bases, thus keeping sacrosanct Babe Ruth's 60 homers and Ty Cobb's 96 stolen bases when 154 games constituted a baseball season.

Regardless of what Taylor personally does tomorrow, the Packers still should win it and continue unmolested to their third straight Western Division title and second straight world championship.

Poll Of Marin Coaches Gives Tam Indians A Very, Very, Slight Edge

With men who know their football best, it's Tamalpais over Redwood tomorrow in the game of the year.

A poll conducted among the five other head coaches in the Marin Athletic League finds two favoring Tam, one leaning toward Redwood and the other two calling the game even-Stephen. All five, however, say it will be closer than a locker room with poor air conditioning.

And all five should know of what they speak, for each and every one of them succumbed to the talents of these unbeaten championship finalists. Give a listen to what they say:

PETE LIMM of Terra Linda, whose Trojans capped their season last Saturday by upsetting San Rafael, rates the game a tossup. "At first I was inclined to favor Tam, but due to their injuries I have to rate it a tossup," he said. "The loss of (Bill) Gillingham at quarterback will hurt Tam. They still have some real threats, but without him it looks even to me."

DOUG DAMASCHINO of Marin Catholic says, "I give the slight edge to Redwood. When Tam lost Gillingham it hurt. His speed running the ends kept the defenses guessing and he was largely responsible for helping his other backs break loose."

MARLIN OLSEN, whose defending champion Hornets gave both Tam and Redwood their toughest battles, leans a bit toward Tam, to-wit: "They (the Indians) hit harder in the line. Redwood's line is more agile, they don't stand still. Tam just runs over you. On offense, again, they're the exact opposites. It's Redwood's deception against Tam's power. The key to Tam's success is their two ends, Foster and Durbin. You can't find much better than those boys. I kind of have to go along with Tam, although it's hard to tell because we played them so far apart. If we played them back to back we'd know better."

BOB FRANCESCHINI, the Drake head man, offers this theory: "I have to go along with Tam and their break-away speed. You can contain a fast fella like Domino for so long, but then watch out! They have other runners who can go all the way, too. I don't see how Redwood can compensate for Tam's speed. Redwood is not a tremendous scoring team and I think if Tam doesn't win it will be a scoreless tie. It will be a very, very close game, however."

Franceschini, former College of Pacific star, also cites Tam's defense as one that ". . . can make a mistake, but they're so fast they recover beautifully." He said Redwood, too, is a great defensive unit.

SAN RAFAEL'S BOB MUSTER, with whom it is always a pleasure to talk, is among those who rates it a tossup. Says Bob, "It's Tam's speed against Redwood's passing. Domino is a real good runner, but Redwood has a good runner, too, in that Auerbach. I think extra points will prove the difference in this game. I look for each team to score a couple of times. I rate it a tossup."

IF PROFESSIONAL experience means anything, the Redwood coaching staff has the edge over Tam.

Both Redwood's head man, Bob Troppmann, and assistant Al Endriss, played for pay—Tropp with the old S.F. Clippers for a season and Big Al with the 49ers (1952) and Calgary Stampeders in the Canadian League (1953-54) with Frankie Albert, John Henry Johnson, etc.

For Tam, head man Pete Belden never played for pay, but his first lieutenant, Mike Davlin, has a few Purple Hearts and some good conduct ribbons from the National Football League as a lineman for the Washington Redskins until a back injury put him out of commission.

If memory serve scorrectly, Michael Davlin was the youngest varsity player (16, I think) in the history of the University of Notre Dame during World War II.

WHICH BRINGS me to the ugly task of predicting a winner. I wish I could predict a tie but I'll have to go along with Tam, too, and pick the Injuns by one point. Kind of a chicken margin, but I honestly think it will be that close.

And as for that other game tomorrow, I'll string along with Novato over San Rafael by 22 points. Again, sorry; and I hope I'm wrong on the point spread on this one. San Rafael's Muster deserves a much better fate. 'Nuff said.

THE EDDIE VIGNO family of Tiburon is split down the middle over the "Turkey Bowl" game. Eddie Sr. graduated from Tam; Eddie Jr. is a Redwood alumnus. Mrs. Vigno says she'll stay neutral by standing in the middle and wave pom pons in both directions.

ROME BRUSATI, whose Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop in San Rafael is selling tickets to the game, says the interest he's noticed ". . . has been fantastic. I wouldn't be surprised to see 10,000 at that game. It's not only parents and students who are enthusiastic, but this game has developed county-wide interest."

Brusati, whose store also sells 49er tickets, compared the rush for ducats to this prep game to a 49er-Packer game. "Yes, we've been rushed," he said.

Of the game, Brusati, a former St. Mary's star, commented, "I don't see how Redwood can lose. And I don't see how Tam can lose. It's that type of a game."

MVP Is A Surprise, Thrill For Mantle

CHELSEA, Okla. (AP) — The only flaw in winning the American League's most valuable player award, Yankee slugger Mickey Mantle said after his third such honor, is that it kept teammate Bobby Richardson from winning.

The 1962 award, Mantle said after his selection yesterday, was "the biggest thrill I've had" because he didn't expect to win. Mantle was hobbled with injuries which nearly ended his playing career.

"I thought Bobby would win," Mantle said. "He had a real good year."

Mantle was on a Tulsa golf course when a newsman gave him the news.

"It was really a big surprise," he said, "but a pleasant one."

There was consolation in that Richardson, the Yankee second baseman, finished second in the voting. Mantle got 234 votes, Richardson 152.

Mantle had a relatively lean year with only 30 home runs and 89 runs batted in, but he still was voted the A.L. most valuable player in the most one-sided runaway since Mantle himself won the first of his three MVP awards in 1956. While he was out of the lineup, the Yankees played only .500 ball and tumbled to fourth place.

The voting is done by two Baseball Writers Assn. members from each major league city. A first place vote is worth 14 points. Then it runs nine for second, eight for third and so on down to one for tenth.

Mantle was the only player named on all 20 ballots, and 12 of the 20 picked him for first place. Five picked Richardson for first, while one picked Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins and one selected rookie Tom Tresh of the Yankees.

Killebrew finished third with 99 points.

Bolero Holds 20-Mile Lead Over Rivals

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Bolero and Escapade, streaking far ahead of the other craft in the Los Angeles-to- Mazatlan yacht race, both were expected to reach the Mexican port sometime late tomorrow.

The 73-foot Bolero, owned by Sally Langmuir, was reported 565 miles out of Los Angeles yesterday, gaining slightly on Baldwin M. Baldwin's Escapade. The latter was 20 miles behind the Bolero in actual distance.

Pushed along by favorable northeast winds that varied from 10 to 20 knots, the two craft were expected to reach Mazatlan — some 1,000 miles from their starting point—Thanksgiving evening.

The other yachts were scattered up to 150 miles behind the Bolero and were not expected to reach the finish line until Friday—or later.

Howard Ahmanson's Sirius II was third in actual mileage at 44 miles. Listed third in corrected time was Ben Williams' 41-foot sloop Capricious, which actually had covered 394 miles.

Other placings were Morning Star 420 miles, Pursuit 424, Santana 420, Ichiban 428, Kamalii 423. A spokesman said the other vessels were scattered near the 425-mile mark.

Warriors Take On Royals Tonight At Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Warriors return from a dismal road trip to face the Cincinnati Royals tonight at the Cow Palace in a game matching the National Basketball Assn.'s two third-place teams.

The Warriors lost four of five on the road to drop to third place in the Western Division, 1½ games behind first place St. Louis and a game behind Los Angeles.

The Royals, featuring Oscar Robertson, are third in the Eastern Division with a 9-6 record. San Francisco is 8-7.

The Royals beat the Warriors twice in Cincinnati.

Oaks Much Better Than The Raiders

OAKLAND (AP)—The seedling Oakland Oaks of the American Basketball League have won more games in four outings than the pro football Oakland Raiders have managed all year.

The Raiders are winless, while the Oaks last night notched their second victory in four starts, 119-100 over Chicago's Majors.

Jim Hadnot led the Oaks' scoring with 20 and Wayne Yates and Fred LeCour each drilled 16. Chicago's Herschel Turner did Hadnot ont better, however, and totaled 21.

MARIN PREPS BATTLE FOR GRIDIRON TITLE

The Indian defense, which has yielded only 25 points in eight games, best record in Marin, also features speed. Ends Jim Durbin and Art Foster and tackles Bob Washington and Tim Broome have made life miserable for passers with their quick rushes. The middle-guard position won't be weakened by the loss of Houston as either Johnson twin can fill the spot efficiently and will alternate the duties.

Tam's linebackers are Hamilton and Bill McIntyre, the wingbacks are Robin Prosch and Domino and halfbacks are Ellis Williams and Don Johnston. Wingback Steve Hewett will also see considerable action at Prosch's spot.

Redwood also features the Wing-T attack, but behind an unbalanced line, and offers more variety than Tam's ground-minded game. Giant quarterback Jim Troppmann is a fine passer, third best in the league, with good targets in Joel Tobiason and Doug Houston, the starting ends. In the ground department, halfback Dave Auerbach, the league's leading scorer, is a breakaway threat. He's gained 259 yards in league. Steve Solinsky, a converted guard, is a great blocker at fullback and also a power runner with 214 yards to his credit. The other starting back is Jerry Rumsey, who hasn't carried much.

Giants Have Shotgun, If Necessary

Redwood has on occasion used a "Shotgun" offense with Troppmann, seven yards back at tailback for passing, and may try it if Tam's quick line rushes the T too quickly.

The word around the league is that Redwood's linebackers make the defense click. One coach said, "They're so good they make the line look better than it is." He was referring to Dennis Schunk in the middle and Steve Minutoli and Joel Wallace on his flanks. They're all juniors. Watch them!

The defensive line will start ends Tobiason and Houston, tackles Jim Carroll and Rick Klein and middle guard Jeff Teather, at 6-foot-6, 245 the largest player on either team.

Redwood's deep defensive backs are Dave Lindsay, John Little and Rumsey.

Redwood players Monday elected Troppmann and Minutoli as co-captains for the game and the season.

Last night Tam elected Domino and Foster co-captains, also for the game and the season. "An excellent choice, I thought," offered Belden.

Admission is $1 for adults and 25 cents for students.

Trade Season On; Bucs Swap Stuart

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The inter-league baseball trading season opened last midnight with all signs pointing to a number of swaps before the deadline at midnight, Dec. 15.

The Pittsburgh Pirates traded first baseman Dick Stuart and pitcher Jack Lamabe to the Boston Red Sox today for pitcher Don Schwall and catcher Jim Pagliaroni.

It was the second major trade engineered by General Manager Joe L. Brown of the Pirates in three days.

On Monday, the Pirates traded shortstop Dick Groat and pitcher Diomedes Olivo to St. Louis for shortstop Julio Gotay and pitcher Don Cardwell.

Schwall, 24, a right-hander, was the American League's rookie of the year in 1961. In 33 games last year, he posted a 9-15 record with an earned-run average of 4.95. He is a school teacher in the off season at Norman, Okla.

Stuart hit .228 last season with 16 homes runs and 64 runs batted in. In 1961, Stuart slugged 35 homers and had 117 RBIs with a .302 average.

DEAL FOR HOAK?

The Pirates also may be trying to make a deal involving Don Hoak, the peppery third baseman who had a sub-par 1962 season because of frequent injuries.

The St. Louis Cardinals already have been active on the trading mart within the National League. Disturbed by last season's failures, the Cards got a top shortstop in Dick Groat of Pittsburgh and a hard-hitting outfielder in George Altman of the Chicago Cubs. They had to give up shortstop Julio Gotay to Pittsburgh and pitchers Larry Jackson and Lindy McDaniel to Chicago. They also passed on Don Cardwell, a pitcher acquired from Chicago. Cardwell went to Pittsburgh in the deal for Groat and relief man Diomedes Olivo.

The Los Angeles Dodgers can be expected to step into the market, cleaning out some of the older material like Duke Snider and Wally Moon to make way for the new talent moving up from the minors. The Dodgers went most of the way with youth last year and just missed.

Many National League clubs, as well as American Leaguers, have their eyes on John Blanchard, the Yanks' extra catcher, and Phil Linz, the Yanks' young utility infielder. The Yanks already have dealt right-hander Bob Turley on a conditional basis to the Los Angeles Angels and are after a big name pitcher.

Syracuse played a 14-game football schedule in 1893.

Warriors Take On Royals Tonight At Cow Palace

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The San Francisco Warriors return from a dismal road trip to face the Cincinnati Royals tonight at the Cow Palace in a game matching the National Basketball Assn.'s two third-place teams.

The Warriors lost four of five on the road to drop to third place in the Western Division, 1½ games behind first place St. Louis and a game behind Los Angeles.

The Royals, featuring Oscar Robertson, are third in the Eastern Division with a 9-6 record. San Francisco is 8-7.

The Royals beat the Warriors twice in Cincinnati.

Oaks Much Better Than The Raiders

OAKLAND (AP)—The seedling Oakland Oaks of the American Basketball League have won more games in four outings than the pro football Oakland Raiders have managed all year.

The Raiders are winless, while the Oaks last night notched their second victory in four starts, 119-100 over Chicago's Majors.

Jim Hadnot led the Oaks' scoring with 20 and Wayne Yates and Fred LeCour each drilled 16. Chicago's Herschel Turner did Hadnot ont better, however, and totaled 21.

MARIN PREPS BATTLE FOR GRIDIRON TITLE

The Indian defense, which has yielded only 25 points in eight games, best record in Marin, also features speed. Ends Jim Durbin and Art Foster and tackles Bob Washington and Tim Broome have made life miserable for passers with their quick rushes. The middle-guard position won't be weakened by the loss of Houston as either Johnson twin can fill the spot efficiently and will alternate the duties.

Tam's linebackers are Hamilton and Bill McIntyre, the wingbacks are Robin Prosch and Domino and halfbacks are Ellis Williams and Don Johnston. Wingback Steve Hewett will also see considerable action at Prosch's spot.

Redwood also features the Wing-T attack, but behind an unbalanced line, and offers more variety than Tam's ground-minded game. Giant quarterback Jim Troppmann is a fine passer, third best in the league, with good targets in Joel Tobiason and Doug Houston, the starting ends. In the ground department, halfback Dave Auerbach, the league's leading scorer, is a breakaway threat. He's gained 259 yards in league. Steve Solinsky, a converted guard, is a great blocker at fullback and also a power runner with 214 yards to his credit. The other starting back is Jerry Rumsey, who hasn't carried much.

Giants Have Shotgun, If Necessary

Redwood has on occasion used a "Shotgun" offense with Troppmann, seven yards back at tailback for passing, and may try it if Tam's quick line rushes the T too quickly.

The word around the league is that Redwood's linebackers make the defense click. One coach said, "They're so good they make the line look better than it is." He was referring to Dennis Schunk in the middle and Steve Minutoli and Joel Wallace on his flanks. They're all juniors. Watch them!

The defensive line will start ends Tobiason and Houston, tackles Jim Carroll and Rick Klein and middle guard Jeff Teather, at 6-foot-6, 245 the largest player on either team.

Redwood's deep defensive backs are Dave Lindsay, John Little and Rumsey.

Redwood players Monday elected Troppmann and Minutoli as co-captains for the game and the season.

Last night Tam elected Domino and Foster co-captains, also for the game and the season. "An excellent choice, I thought," offered Belden.

Admission is $1 for adults and 25 cents for students.

Trade Season On; Bucs Swap Stuart

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The inter-league baseball trading season opened last midnight with all signs pointing to a number of swaps before the deadline at midnight, Dec. 15.

The Pittsburgh Pirates traded first baseman Dick Stuart and pitcher Jack Lamabe to the Boston Red Sox today for pitcher Don Schwall and catcher Jim Pagliaroni.

It was the second major trade engineered by General Manager Joe L. Brown of the Pirates in three days.

On Monday, the Pirates traded shortstop Dick Groat and pitcher Diomedes Olivo to St. Louis for shortstop Julio Gotay and pitcher Don Cardwell.

Schwall, 24, a right-hander, was the American League's rookie of the year in 1961. In 33 games last year, he posted a 9-15 record with an earned-run average of 4.95. He is a school teacher in the off season at Norman, Okla.

Stuart hit .228 last season with 16 homes runs and 64 runs batted in. In 1961, Stuart slugged 35 homers and had 117 RBIs with a .302 average.

DEAL FOR HOAK?

The Pirates also may be trying to make a deal involving Don Hoak, the peppery third baseman who had a sub-par 1962 season because of frequent injuries.

The St. Louis Cardinals already have been active on the trading mart within the National League. Disturbed by last season's failures, the Cards got a top shortstop in Dick Groat of Pittsburgh and a hard-hitting outfielder in George Altman of the Chicago Cubs. They had to give up shortstop Julio Gotay to Pittsburgh and pitchers Larry Jackson and Lindy McDaniel to Chicago. They also passed on Don Cardwell, a pitcher acquired from Chicago. Cardwell went to Pittsburgh in the deal for Groat and relief man Diomedes Olivo.

The Los Angeles Dodgers can be expected to step into the market, cleaning out some of the older material like Duke Snider and Wally Moon to make way for the new talent moving up from the minors. The Dodgers went most of the way with youth last year and just missed.

Many National League clubs, as well as American Leaguers, have their eyes on John Blanchard, the Yanks' extra catcher, and Phil Linz, the Yanks' young utility infielder. The Yanks already have dealt right-hander Bob Turley on a conditional basis to the Los Angeles Angels and are after a big name pitcher.

Syracuse played a 14-game football schedule in 1893.

U.S. Blockade Of Cuba Is Over sued Oct. 23, at the height of the Cuban crisis. At that time the Defense Ministry canceled all military leaves and halted discharges of servicemen of senior age groups in the strategic rocket forces, antiaircraft defense units and the submarine fleet.

The order today also said all Soviet submarines should return to their normal stations.

Soviet Marshal Andrei Grechko, commander of the Warsaw Pact military forces, also canceled similar combat readiness orders he issued to his forces on Oct. 23.

Kennedy opened his news conference with the dramatic announcement that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had just promised in a personal message to pull out all IL-28 jet bombers within 30 days.

Khrushchev reportedly had placed 30-odd IL-28s in Cuba. He also agreed to permit the planes to be observed and counted as they go. Authorities indicated the Russians would need 30 days in which to dismantle the planes, crate them and get ships to Cuba to haul them home.

"Inasmuch as this goes a long way towards reducing the danger which faced this hemisphere four weeks ago," Kennedy said, "I have this afternoon instructed the secretary of defense to lift our naval quarantine."

Kennedy said "important parts" of his understanding with Khrushchev on Cuba have not been carried out. Castro has not allowed the United Nations to confirm the removal of all offensive weapons, he said, and no real safeguards have been established against the return of such weapons to Cuba.

"Consequently, if the Western Hemisphere is to continue to be protected against offensive weapons, this government has no choice but to pursue its own means of checking on military activities in Cuba," Kennedy asserted.

He would not say directly whether the United States would refuse to give a formal pledge against invading Cuba without U.N. inspection, but hinted this was the case. And while striving for peace in the Caribbean, he said "we will not, of course, abandon the political, economic and other efforts of this hemisphere to halt subversion from Cuba nor our purpose and hope that the Cuban people shall some day be truly free."

He commented that "these policies are very different from any intent to launch a military invasion of the island."

The chief executive avoided predictions—about whether the rift between the Soviet Union and Red China is helpful or harmful, for instance. He called this "a rather climactic period" and said the coming months will reveal more precisely "what is going on in the world beyond this hemisphere."

After four nerve-jarring weeks, Kennedy was able to size up the future with hope.

"Human nature is the same on both sides, fortunately, on both sides of the Iron Curtain," he said, "which is why I am optimistic about the ultimate outcome of this struggle."

At the United Nations, delegates hailed today concessions by the U.S. and the Soviet Union on two main friction points over Cuba as a big step out of the crisis.

Diplomats predicted that long negotiations lay ahead before a final settlement is reached. But most felt the talks could proceed more smoothly since Khrushchev has promised to pull the jet bombers out of Cuba and Kennedy countered by ordering the naval arms blockade lifted.

HUMBOLDT STREET MAY BE EXTENDED

The Sausalito City Council last night agreed that Humboldt Street may need to be extended through the proposed Sausalito Properties waterfront development, and voted to so inform the developer.

Councilman Michael Harris asked that the letter to Sausalito Properties also note that Proposition 14, to permit sale of underwater land by cities, was rejected 1,310 to 951 by Sausalito voters, although it passed statewide.

The council read aloud and answered a letter from John J. Gallas in which Gallas asked 11 questions. One question was whether the council had any special interest in the Sausalito Properties project.

Councilmen Philip S. Ehrlich and Howard Sievers replied "no." Mayor Paul Micou said "not that I know of."

Gallas thanked the council for reading his letter and added he has no proof the council had a special interest but "I have heard the question . . . the air is much clearer now."

The Sausalito City Council also:

1. Voted 3-2, Councilmen Sievers and Jan Paul Dyk voting "no," to grant a variance from off-street parking requirement to Stanley P. Berney for his apartment-shopping complex at Bridgeway and Princess Street.
2. Approved a use permit and variance from off-street parking for Morris Singer for expansion of Lucky Porky, 707 Bridgeway.
3. Turned down a proposal by Stephenson Companies of Sausalito that the city take over the firm's four and one-half year lease of a portion of Shelter Cove for $5,000, and take responsibility for three barges in the cove.
4. Accepted low bid of $4,630 by Ceccotti and Sons, of Corte Madera, for the Edwards Avenue retaining wall.

Sleepy Hollow Unit Opposes Road Plans

A letter to Marin County supervisors from the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn. yesterday voiced opposition to the proposed Sleepy Hollow-Terra Linda road connection.

Signed by John W. Gaylord as president, the letter asked that the supervisors initiate a review by the planning commission of the 1952 streets and highways plan, especially with regard to the area between the Hub intersection, Fairfax and the Redwood Highway, coordinating such review with the state highways division study of a new east-west highway.

It also recommended that the proposed route be changed in classification from "major throughfare" to feeder road.

The supervisors took no action on the request.

The board of supervisors also:

1. Appointed Milton L. Stannard of 3 Greenwood Court, Tiburon, to the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District.
2. Confirmed appointments of Jean W. Goodrich as social worker in the welfare department at $445 monthly, and Burly Simon as intermediate typist clerk, department of public works, at $345.
3. Authorized Civic Center use by the Council of the Catholic Conference of Social Welfare at 8 p.m. next March 4, and by the Marin County Heart Assn. from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. next Jan. 26.
4. Learned 500 persons can be sheltered for civil defense purposes at the Civic Center and told the building maintenance office and purchasing office to study a request for civil defense equipment storage space.
5. Contributed $100 toward preparation of a school brochure about civil defense.
6. Approved a request by the Marin Coast Chamber of Commerce for support of an Army Engineer Corps study of feasibility of making Tomales Bay a harbor of refuge for small craft.
7. Voted $3,000 from funds of of the Venetia Harbor Sewer Maintenance District to allow acceptance of a $31,245 bid by North Bay Construction Co. of Santa Rosa to provide pumping station and lines for annexation to Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District.
8. Decided to assign the new parks and recreation director, to be hired next year, to the planning department, rather than create a new department.

JFK Makes Good Housing Pledge

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON—In addition to the dramatic announcements that the Cuban quarantine was to be lifted, and that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had announced that Soviet jet bombers would be removed from Cuba, President John F. Kennedy talked on these other subjects yesterday at his new conference:

HOUSING — Kennedy made good a 1960 campaign pledge by announcing that builders and mortgage lenders who bar Negroes won't get federal financial backing.

The order will affect about 50 per cent of all future suburban home building, officials estimated, and a substantial part—around 20 to 25 per cent—of homes and apartments built within city limits.

But it was far less sweeping than many administration aides had urged, and seemed certain to provoke outcries of disappointment from some civil rights groups and Negro organizations which have been pushing Kennedy for action.

However, there was no criticism from the Congress of Racial Equality. Its national director, James Farmer, said in New York: "The federal government has at last recognized that it has a prime responsibility in ending discrimination in housing. It is a first step."

The White House order declares it to be the government's policy to assure equal housing opportunities "without regard to race, creed, color or national origin." But it carries no enforcement machinery to prevent discrimination in conventional home sales — those in which the mortgage is not backed up by federal insurance or guarantees.

Housing officials said further action may be taken. For the present it seemed wise, they said, to "go at it as prudently and sensibly as possible" while acquiring experience and legal precedent.

INDIA — He declared Pakistan has no cause for alarm over U.S. military aid to India, which "is for the purpose of defeating Chinese Communist subversion." There is no present indication that U.S. troops will be sent to India, he said.

INFORMATION — Kennedy announced the government was lifting the 12-point set of guidelines for restraint on news stories concerning troop movements, plane and ship deployment and the like.

Suit Threat Over City Clerk Job

A threat of court action to force a special election for city clerk in Sausalito was hurled at the Sausalito City Council last night.

Discussion of the city clerk position, now held by City Mgr. Charles A. Brown under appointment to fill out the term of Amelie Smith, who resigned, was scheduled for the council meeting. At 11:20 p.m., Mayor Paul Micou announced that it would have to be put off until next meeting.

Warren Glass arose in the audience to object that he had been waiting since 8 p.m. for the matter to be discussed.

"If it is not taken up tonight, I will direct my attorney to file a writ of mandamus to the superior court," he said.

"Fine! We're not going to take it up tonight," said Micou.

Glass said later the writ would be to force the council to call a special election to fill the position.

Letters were before the council from the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce and Sausalito Citizens Council. The chamber's letter, signed by president Russell H. Papenhausen, contended the offices of city clerk and city manager are incompatible and urged an election. The citizen council letter, signed by president Carl Gabrielson, took the opposite view.

Behr Says He'll Urge Fair Housing If He Gets Support

Supervisor Peter Behr said yesterday he will again propose a fair housing law for Marin County as soon as he can convince another supervisor to support him.

"As soon as I can persuade just one member to change his mind, I will bring it up again," Behr said. "Even though it would be a minority vote, it would be progress."

Behr made his remarks during the board's discussion of a request from the Marin Committee for Fair Play in Housing for a copy of the transcript of the board's April 25 hearing on a fair housing law.

At the hearing, an ordinance which would make racial discrimination in housing a misdemeanor was rejected for the second time in two years. All supervisors except Behr indicated disapproval.

The board agreed it could not pay the expense of a transcript copy for the committee, but declared the transcript at the courthouse is "always

Building Leased To Retarded Unit

A lease of Marin County hospital nurses' quarters to Marin Aid to Retarded Children was authorized by county supervisors yesterday.

Inspection by the MARC executive board disclosed that the building "would be ideal as a location for the MARC-MARIN work training shelter," according to a letter to the board from Dante Bagnani, president of the organization.

He said this would be a sheltered workshop for handicapped young people and adults.

The board unanimously approved a motion by Supervisor George Ludy that there be a $1 a lease three-year lease with 120-day cancellation clause.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

5:09 p.m., Mill Valley — Grass fire, cause undetermined, at 10 Stanton Way.

TODAY:

8:16 a.m., Marin County—Basement fire at 138 Auburn Street in California Park south of San Rafael, possibly caused by cigarette. Damage to chair, about $30.

3 Young Marines Complete Training

Three young Marinites have lately completed four weeks of individual combat training with the Marine Corps' Second Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Pendleton.

They are: Pvts. Lloyd M. Potts, son of Francis D. Potts of 550 Marin Avenue, and Stephen M. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Clark of 239 Richardson Way, both Mill Valley, and Anthony L. Fuller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent L. Fuller of 137 San Francisco Boulevard, San Anselmo.

Board Action Asked On Coroner's Office

The Marin County Grand Jury would like to know what the board of supervisors intends to do about handling of deceased persons' properties by Coroner-Public Administrator Frank J. Keaton.

In a letter to the board yesterday, Edgar T. Lindner, chairman of the jury's county offices committee, wrote:

"On Oct. 11 the Grand Jury submitted an interim report to you with reference to investigation of the Frank Keaton case. At that time we recommended that the board of supervisors take action to determine what changes should be made to insure a sound procedure in the handling of public administrative cases.

"We are somewhat concerned with some of the procedures now in effect. We would appreciate an answer from the board as to what action has been taken or what plans for action have been discussed."

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said the board should first seek an opinion from the county counsel "as to what action we can take within the law." Supervisor William A. Gnoss asked why the grand jury had not made suggestions for improvements.

The jury said in the interim report that no "malfeasance" was found, but there was "carelessness and mishandling" of property of certain deceased persons.

On motion of Supervisor Peter Behr, the board agreed to ask the county counsel to "confer with Keaton on public administrative procedures" and report back. A counsel opinion on what action the board might legally take was also requested.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the board "has the authority to review accounting procedures of all county officials."

Old Mill School Due Inspection

Final inspection of four-classroom addition to Old Mill School will be made at 10 a.m. Monday by some trustees of the Mill Valley School District, school administrators and city officials.

This will mark completion of 19 classrooms added to five schools, which were approved in last April's elections.

Yet to be accomplished are repair of the Old Mill Auditorium, and replacement of the maintenance garage.

Shadows cast by the sun and the pattern of wind-blown snow can reveal prehistoric burial mounds and roads when an area is photographed from the air.

Intoxicated Driver Is Given $110 Fine

Cornelio Garnica, 26, of Albany, a student at University of California, must pay $110 fine for drunken driving in Marin County last Saturday.

Highway patrolmen arrested Garnica on Highway 101 after he was involved in an accident. Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court sentenced him yesterday.

JFK Makes Good Housing Pledge

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON—In addition to the dramatic announcements that the Cuban quarantine was to be lifted, and that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had announced that Soviet jet bombers would be removed from Cuba, President John F. Kennedy talked on these other subjects yesterday at his new conference:

HOUSING — Kennedy made good a 1960 campaign pledge by announcing that builders and mortgage lenders who bar Negroes won't get federal financial backing.

The order will affect about 50 per cent of all future suburban home building, officials estimated, and a substantial part—around 20 to 25 per cent—of homes and apartments built within city limits.

But it was far less sweeping than many administration aides had urged, and seemed certain to provoke outcries of disappointment from some civil rights groups and Negro organizations which have been pushing Kennedy for action.

However, there was no criticism from the Congress of Racial Equality. Its national director, James Farmer, said in New York: "The federal government has at last recognized that it has a prime responsibility in ending discrimination in housing. It is a first step."

The White House order declares it to be the government's policy to assure equal housing opportunities "without regard to race, creed, color or national origin." But it carries no enforcement machinery to prevent discrimination in conventional home sales — those in which the mortgage is not backed up by federal insurance or guarantees.

Housing officials said further action may be taken. For the present it seemed wise, they said, to "go at it as prudently and sensibly as possible" while acquiring experience and legal precedent.

INDIA — He declared Pakistan has no cause for alarm over U.S. military aid to India, which "is for the purpose of defeating Chinese Communist subversion." There is no present indication that U.S. troops will be sent to India, he said.

INFORMATION — Kennedy announced the government was lifting the 12-point set of guidelines for restraint on news stories concerning troop movements, plane and ship deployment and the like.

Suit Threat Over City Clerk Job

A threat of court action to force a special election for city clerk in Sausalito was hurled at the Sausalito City Council last night.

Discussion of the city clerk position, now held by City Mgr. Charles A. Brown under appointment to fill out the term of Amelie Smith, who resigned, was scheduled for the council meeting. At 11:20 p.m., Mayor Paul Micou announced that it would have to be put off until next meeting.

Warren Glass arose in the audience to object that he had been waiting since 8 p.m. for the matter to be discussed.

"If it is not taken up tonight, I will direct my attorney to file a writ of mandamus to the superior court," he said.

"Fine! We're not going to take it up tonight," said Micou.

Glass said later the writ would be to force the council to call a special election to fill the position.

Letters were before the council from the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce and Sausalito Citizens Council. The chamber's letter, signed by president Russell H. Papenhausen, contended the offices of city clerk and city manager are incompatible and urged an election. The citizen council letter, signed by president Carl Gabrielson, took the opposite view.

Behr Says He'll Urge Fair Housing If He Gets Support

Supervisor Peter Behr said yesterday he will again propose a fair housing law for Marin County as soon as he can convince another supervisor to support him.

"As soon as I can persuade just one member to change his mind, I will bring it up again," Behr said. "Even though it would be a minority vote, it would be progress."

Behr made his remarks during the board's discussion of a request from the Marin Committee for Fair Play in Housing for a copy of the transcript of the board's April 25 hearing on a fair housing law.

At the hearing, an ordinance which would make racial discrimination in housing a misdemeanor was rejected for the second time in two years. All supervisors except Behr indicated disapproval.

The board agreed it could not pay the expense of a transcript copy for the committee, but declared the transcript at the courthouse is "always

Building Leased To Retarded Unit

A lease of Marin County hospital nurses' quarters to Marin Aid to Retarded Children was authorized by county supervisors yesterday.

Inspection by the MARC executive board disclosed that the building "would be ideal as a location for the MARC-MARIN work training shelter," according to a letter to the board from Dante Bagnani, president of the organization.

He said this would be a sheltered workshop for handicapped young people and adults.

The board unanimously approved a motion by Supervisor George Ludy that there be a $1 a lease three-year lease with 120-day cancellation clause.

Board Action Asked On Coroner's Office

The Marin County Grand Jury would like to know what the board of supervisors intends to do about handling of deceased persons' properties by Coroner-Public Administrator Frank J. Keaton.

In a letter to the board yesterday, Edgar T. Lindner, chairman of the jury's county offices committee, wrote:

"On Oct. 11 the Grand Jury submitted an interim report to you with reference to investigation of the Frank Keaton case. At that time we recommended that the board of supervisors take action to determine what changes should be made to insure a sound procedure in the handling of public administrative cases.

"We are somewhat concerned with some of the procedures now in effect. We would appreciate an answer from the board as to what action has been taken or what plans for action have been discussed."

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said the board should first seek an opinion from the county counsel "as to what action we can take within the law." Supervisor William A. Gnoss asked why the grand jury had not made suggestions for improvements.

The jury said in the interim report that no "malfeasance" was found, but there was "carelessness and mishandling" of property of certain deceased persons.

On motion of Supervisor Peter Behr, the board agreed to ask the county counsel to "confer with Keaton on public administrative procedures" and report back. A counsel opinion on what action the board might legally take was also requested.

County Administrator Alan Bruce said the board "has the authority to review accounting procedures of all county officials."

Old Mill School Due Inspection

Final inspection of four-classroom addition to Old Mill School will be made at 10 a.m. Monday by some trustees of the Mill Valley School District, school administrators and city officials.

This will mark completion of 19 classrooms added to five schools, which were approved in last April's elections.

Yet to be accomplished are repair of the Old Mill Auditorium, and replacement of the maintenance garage.

Shadows cast by the sun and the pattern of wind-blown snow can reveal prehistoric burial mounds and roads when an area is photographed from the air.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Captain, Crew To Dine In Sausalito

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Probably the gayest Thanksgiving Day dinner party will take place tomorrow in Sausalito when Mrs. S. C. Stapp, who returned home Monday from a tour of the Orient, entertains. She has invited all the crew of the President Wilson and four attractive airline stewardesses to the Thanksgiving feast. To make it a real home-coming celebration Sally Stapp has invited her son, Dr. Henry Stapp of Berkeley, and a number of friends whose homes are in other countries.

The President Wilson arrives in its San Francisco port today. Sally sailed on it Oct. 9 to Hong Kong and it was while she was aboard the ship she invited the young officers to the Thanksgiving dinner. From Hong Kong Sally flew to Bangkok for a couple of days and to Formosa. She had planned to go to other parts of the Orient but because of the fighting between India and Communist Chinese forces, flights were curtailed. Sally went also to Manila, Singapore and Okinawa.

The most enjoyable part of the trip was Japan. Sally took many side trips from Tokyo. On one of these she visited a spa on the ocean shore. The spa where she was overnight, is owned by her former gardener, Mori, who returned to his native Japan nine years ago. "I was treated like a queen," Sally enthused. "Twenty servants waited on me and I was given a car with chauffeur to drive to other scenic places."

In addition to having a houseful of guests on Thanksgiving Day, Sally faces the problem of caring for two puppies. They were in the litter of her Bedlington terrier, Miss Cricket, who was cared for while her mistress was away, at an animal hospital in the south. Miss Cricket and the puppies are being flown up from the hospital.

ELEANOR AND BILL MOSDEN are entertaining a large group, mostly relatives, tomorrow at their home in Ross. Enjoying Thanksgiving with them will be their son, Christopher, Elinor's mother, Mrs. Adolphus Graupner, and her aunt, Mrs. William Shea of San Francisco, her brother, Adolphus Graupner Jr. of Berkeley, formerly of Ross, his wife and the latter's son, Douglas Cobb. Other guests will be Frank and Mary Baumgarten of Ridgeview Farm, Fairfax, Mrs. Delmer Clinton of Mill Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turley of Berkeley and their daughter Mrs. John Haycock of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bjorge of Berkeley.

FOLLOWING the National Catholic Theater Conference at Dominican College, Kenneth Franceschi, financial secretary of NCTC, entertained at a cocktail party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Franceschi of San Rafael.

Among the guests were Al Tresconi, executive casting director with MGM Studios; Dan O'Herlihy, famous actor of stage and screen; Shamus Locke of the Abbey Theater of Dublin; Jack Aranson and McMasters of the Shakespearean company of Ireland; J. Fenton McKenna, chairman of Creative Arts Division of San Francisco State College; Don McLaughlin, public relations director of Pacific Telephone, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robinson.

MRS. A. BARLOW FERGUSON of Kent Woodlands entertained at a luncheon following the preview of the concert of the Marin Symphony Concert this morning at the Meadow Club. Bettye Ferguson's guests were Mesdames Arnold Weiser, William Barry, James Knox, Bernhardt Poetz and Miriam Delaplane.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH B. WALLACE have sold their Belvedere home and with their five children, Pamela, Melinda, Jennifer, Joel and Kirk, have moved to Ross. With the Wallaces are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson J. White, who also sold their Belvedere home.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Captain, Crew To Dine In Sausalito

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Probably the gayest Thanksgiving Day dinner party will take place tomorrow in Sausalito when Mrs. S. C. Stapp, who returned home Monday from a tour of the Orient, entertains. She has invited all the crew of the President Wilson and four attractive airline stewardesses to the Thanksgiving feast. To make it a real home-coming celebration Sally Stapp has invited her son, Dr. Henry Stapp of Berkeley, and a number of friends whose homes are in other countries.

The President Wilson arrives in its San Francisco port today. Sally sailed on it Oct. 9 to Hong Kong and it was while she was aboard the ship she invited the young officers to the Thanksgiving dinner. From Hong Kong Sally flew to Bangkok for a couple of days and to Formosa. She had planned to go to other parts of the Orient but because of the fighting between India and Communist Chinese forces, flights were curtailed. Sally went also to Manila, Singapore and Okinawa.

The most enjoyable part of the trip was Japan. Sally took many side trips from Tokyo. On one of these she visited a spa on the ocean shore. The spa where she was overnight, is owned by her former gardener, Mori, who returned to his native Japan nine years ago. "I was treated like a queen," Sally enthused. "Twenty servants waited on me and I was given a car with chauffeur to drive to other scenic places."

In addition to having a houseful of guests on Thanksgiving Day, Sally faces the problem of caring for two puppies. They were in the litter of her Bedlington terrier, Miss Cricket, who was cared for while her mistress was away, at an animal hospital in the south. Miss Cricket and the puppies are being flown up from the hospital.

ELEANOR AND BILL MOSDEN are entertaining a large group, mostly relatives, tomorrow at their home in Ross. Enjoying Thanksgiving with them will be their son, Christopher, Elinor's mother, Mrs. Adolphus Graupner, and her aunt, Mrs. William Shea of San Francisco, her brother, Adolphus Graupner Jr. of Berkeley, formerly of Ross, his wife and the latter's son, Douglas Cobb. Other guests will be Frank and Mary Baumgarten of Ridgeview Farm, Fairfax, Mrs. Delmer Clinton of Mill Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Turley of Berkeley and their daughter Mrs. John Haycock of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bjorge of Berkeley.

FOLLOWING the National Catholic Theater Conference at Dominican College, Kenneth Franceschi, financial secretary of NCTC, entertained at a cocktail party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Franceschi of San Rafael.

Among the guests were Al Tresconi, executive casting director with MGM Studios; Dan O'Herlihy, famous actor of stage and screen; Shamus Locke of the Abbey Theater of Dublin; Jack Aranson and McMasters of the Shakespearean company of Ireland; J. Fenton McKenna, chairman of Creative Arts Division of San Francisco State College; Don McLaughlin, public relations director of Pacific Telephone, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robinson.

MRS. A. BARLOW FERGUSON of Kent Woodlands entertained at a luncheon following the preview of the concert of the Marin Symphony Concert this morning at the Meadow Club. Bettye Ferguson's guests were Mesdames Arnold Weiser, William Barry, James Knox, Bernhardt Poetz and Miriam Delaplane.

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH B. WALLACE have sold their Belvedere home and with their five children, Pamela, Melinda, Jennifer, Joel and Kirk, have moved to Ross. With the Wallaces are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rawson J. White, who also sold their Belvedere home.

What Client May Expect Of Designer

NEW YORK (UPI)—What may a client expect from an interior designer? What besides a fee does an interior designer expect from a client?

These are two questions interior designers are asked frequently. Unfortunately, there are misconceptions in the minds of many home owners and apartment dwellers as to the interior designer-client relationship.

The far too prevalent feeling seems to be that the interior designer is too expensive, too "far out", too arbitrary in imposing his—or her—taste on a client. But mainly, too expensive.

WHEN USING an interior designer, the client receives the services of a professional—like a doctor or a lawyer. By his years of education and experience in the field, he is qualified to plan and supervise the design and execution of interiors and their furnishings.

The interior designer does not just take an order for so many yards of fabric, or so many pieces of furniture. He first studies the habits of his client's family. How they live.

THEN HE interprets these finds to create a background most suitable and functional for their particular kind of living.

The designer plans and supervises . . . eliminating doubt and uncertainty. Due to his "know-how," he saves the client both time and money. He knows what is available in the market and where to get it.

His services are paid for normally by the difference between the wholesale price of the furnishings purchased and the retail price the client would pay anyway for the same items.

THE DESIGNER not only makes the purchases, but also creates a well-planned coordinated interior with them for the same price the client would have to spend for the furnishings alone.

The professional interior designer has a thorough knowledge of proportion and scale, a knowledge of color coordination, lighting and space planning, all technical aspects of interior design with which the ordinary layman is not familiar. This is the area in which the glaring errors of "do it yourself decorating" are most apparent.

NOW, ABOUT what the interior designer expects from the client.

The client must allot sufficient time for consultation and some shopping with the decorator. This should include at least two appointments a week. All day sessions are too tiring and confusing to the client.

If the client is a wife, the husband should be brought into consultation, since tastes of both are to be considered.

The husband also should be present when the budget is being discussed, since he foots the bill. The client must be honest about how much she wants to spend, since this will determine to some extent the procedure to be followed. Such, for instance, as doing one room well on a limited budget and going on with a certain amount of additional work each year.

THE CLIENT should have some idea of the effect she would like to achieve and be honest about her likes and dislikes. The client should not be overly influenced by popular trends but should use colors and furnishings becoming to her, and which her family likes, as a background.

It Will Be Day Of Resentment For Youth In Institutions

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day. Will you count your blessings gratefully? I've been thinking of the boys and girls locked up in reform schools. Do you know what sort of Thanksgiving Day they'll have?

They will be lonesome. They'll hear the radio, and watch the TV shows. They'll see that Thanksgiving is a day for feasting, for family gatherings, and for fun. But they won't be home to enjoy it. They will be served turkey, and see Thanksgiving decorations on some of their tables. They'll listen to a chaplain give a Thanksgiving prayer, but it still will not be a Thanksgiving Day to them. It will be a day of special resentment, and bitterness and regret.

Their parents will be lonely too. What's the use of a family gathering, when one member is locked up? Why thank God for blessings, when what you want most is denied to you? Put yourself in the place of reform school children's mothers and fathers. You'll see what I mean.

Improvements have been made in a few places. In California and certain other states, incarcerated boys and girls with good records can go home for Thanksgiving Day and for Christmas Day. Special "leaves" are granted to them. When the practice started, calamity howlers predicted mass runaways. They said that once the kids got outside the walls they'd take off, and never return. But they were wrong. The last time I checked in California not one of the hundreds who had received Thanksgiving leaves had taken advantage of it. They all had accepted the responsibility, and had returned.

I wish all reform schools everywhere would grant Thanksgiving and Christmas leaves, don't you?

When you bow your head at your table tomorrow, remember the forlorn youngsters in reform schools. Pray for them and for their parents. Thank you, friends.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Is it fair to call state schools for delinquent juveniles 'reform schools'? Isn't there a better name?"

Mrs. R. B.

(A) There are milder names. However, in most states the schools are the same old barren, overcrowded, understaffed "reform schools" we learned about years ago. The old name still applies.

The bride was graduated from Dominican Convent and Stanford University. The bridegroom, who is a former member of The Bachelors, is a Stanford University graduate; his fraternity was Theta Chi.

He is the grandson of Mrs. Roy S. Folger and the late Mr. Foiger and the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Erlin. Cressey is the granddaughter of Dr. Lionel Paget Player of Pebble Beach and the late Mrs. Player and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell Wallace.

Here's Help In Battle Against Dirt

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—Here's help in the battle against dirt that will be tracked into the house during winter.

Whether snow or rain is the culprit, there's bound to be more mud around. And some of it will be entering the house and winding up right where you don't want it—on the carpet!

Researchers for the American Carpet Institute offer a battle plan for carpet and rug cleaning which could make the winter's campaign against dirt easier and more certain of success.

The Institute lists three main weapons the housewife has in her fight against carpet dirt: vacuum cleaners, carpet sweepers and brooms.

Carpet sweepers are highly rated for daily light cleaning, as they pick up lint, crumbs, and other surface litter. They remove some dust, but as they do not get at imbedded soil, the Institute says they aren't enough for thorough care.

Brooms sweep the dust from the carpet, but then the law of gravity takes over. The dust falls back onto the carpet. A light brooming can help brush up a matted area . . . but do keep it light. And never use a metal broom or very stiff brush, for they could damage looped pile or break the carpet tufts.

The Institute maintains a vacuum cleaner is essential for proper care, and recommends one which combines a strong suction with a revolving brush and agitator or beater bar. A straight suction type machine should be kept mechanically fit, with clean, unwarn brushes. The dirt bag should not be allowed to fill more than halfway.

How often you should use these implements depends on several factors, including how often a room is used, and whether heavy traffic moves over a particular section of carpet or rug. In some homes, the vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper is run over the carpeting every day, with more thorough cleaning once or twice a week.

A light cleaning is rated by the Institute as three individual strikes of the cleaner over a given area of carpeting—forward, back and forward.

They will be served turkey, and see Thanksgiving decorations on some of their tables. They'll listen to a chaplain give a Thanksgiving prayer, but it still will not be a Thanksgiving Day to them. It will be a day of special resentment, and bitterness and regret.

Their parents will be lonely too. What's the use of a family gathering, when one member is locked up? Why thank God for blessings, when what you want most is denied to you? Put yourself in the place of reform school children's mothers and fathers. You'll see what I mean.

Improvements have been made in a few places. In California and certain other states, incarcerated boys and girls with good records can go home for Thanksgiving Day and for Christmas Day. Special "leaves" are granted to them. When the practice started, calamity howlers predicted mass runaways. They said that once the kids got outside the walls they'd take off, and never return. But they were wrong. The last time I checked in California not one of the hundreds who had received Thanksgiving leaves had taken advantage of it. They all had accepted the responsibility, and had returned.

I wish all reform schools everywhere would grant Thanksgiving and Christmas leaves, don't you?

When you bow your head at your table tomorrow, remember the forlorn youngsters in reform schools. Pray for them and for their parents. Thank you, friends.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "Is it fair to call state schools for delinquent juveniles 'reform schools'? Isn't there a better name?"

Mrs. R. B.

(A) There are milder names. However, in most states the schools are the same old barren, overcrowded, understaffed "reform schools" we learned about years ago. The old name still applies.

The Church of St. Vincent de Paul in San Francisco was the setting for the Saturday wedding of Cressey Wallace and Michael William Erlin, performed by the Rev. John Tierney. Cressey is the doughter of former Marinites Dr. and Mrs. William Byron Wallace, now of San Francisco.

She recited vows in a full length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle ending in a chapel train. Cressey was given in marriage by her father.

The little flower girl was Virginia Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Griffith of Ross. Lawrence Barrett, son of the Lawrence Barretts Jr. of Millbrae was ringbearer. He is the cousin of the bridegroom.

Serving his brother as best man was Peter Erlin. They are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Erlin of Palo Alto. Ushering guests were Hugh and Bill Wallace, brothers of the bride; William Sterling, Tom Haid, Elliott Smith, William Crawford and Terry Cullinan.

After a wedding trip to Mexico the couple will live in Sausalito.

The bride was graduated from Dominican Convent and Stanford University. The bridegroom, who is a former member of The Bachelors, is a Stanford University graduate; his fraternity was Theta Chi.

He is the grandson of Mrs. Roy S. Folger and the late Mr. Folger and the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank William Erlin. Cressey is the granddaughter of Dr. Lionel Paget Player of Pebble Beach and the late Mrs. Player and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Campbell Wallace.

Here's Help In Battle Against Dirt

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Here's help in the battle against dirt that will be tracked into the house during winter.

Whether snow or rain is the culprit, there's bound to be more mud around. And some of it will be entering the house and winding up right where you don't want it—on the carpet!

Researchers for the American Carpet Institute offer a battle plan for carpet and rug cleaning which could make the winter's campaign against dirt easier and more certain of success.

The Institute lists three main weapons the housewife has in her fight against carpet dirt: vacuum cleaners, carpet sweepers and brooms.

Carpet sweepers are highly rated for daily light cleaning, as they pick up lint, crumbs, and other surface litter. They remove some dust, but as they do not get at imbedded soil, the Institute says they aren't enough for thorough care.

Brooms sweep the dust from the carpet, but then the law of gravity takes over. The dust falls back onto the carpet. A light brooming can help brush up a matted area . . . but do keep it light. And never use a metal broom or very stiff brush, for they could damage looped pile or break the carpet tufts.

The Institute maintains a vacuum cleaner is essential for proper care, and recommends one which combines a strong suction with a revolving brush and agitator or beater bar. A straight suction type machine should be kept mechanically fit, with clean, unwarn brushes. The dirt bag should not be allowed to fill more than halfway.

How often you should use these implements depends on several factors, including how often a room is used, and whether heavy traffic moves over a particular section of carpet or rug. In some homes, the vacuum cleaner or carpet sweeper is run over the carpeting every day, with more thorough cleaning once or twice a week.

A light cleaning is rated by the Institute as three individual strikes of the cleaner over a given area of carpeting—forward, back and forward.

The principles of good advertising never change

Advertising is something you do when you cannot send a personal salesman.

And the principles of effective person-to-person selling haven't changed basically since the first man who built a better mouse trap extolled its virtues to his neighbors. Selling by means of advertising (which is really selling to the thousands rather than to one person at a time) still operates according to these same rules which have long been the basis of effective mass-selling.

Surprising as it may seem to those who think of advertising as "a Johnny come lately," these principles were known and were in use half a century ago . . . as you will see when you read this talk given before the Springfield Ad Men's Club on November 7, 1907.

The problem of dealing with human nature is the most difficult of all problems. Silver tongues are needed in exploiting one's wares if golden results are to be expected.

To create a demand is the need of the hour with every business man.

Definite policies must be pursued and the persuasive touch in advertising discovered.

The day has passed when any old thing will do. One must be fertile in ideas.

The coining of new phrases is essential; to study is imperative; nonsense must be avoided and common sense must prevail; percentages must be calcuated; conditions not overstated.

To back up religiously everything of his that appears in cold type is every advertiser's duty.

Extravagance in statement is the mother of suspicion.

Make the do-so of your advertisement just a little better than the say-so.

Pyrotechnical advertising loses its value with the dying out of the flare.

It is bad policy to get the best of a man. He'll get back at you some way—some day—dead sure.

The real object of advertising is to inform, not to deceive.

The philosophy of the grafter when he says:

"Let us then be up and doing,
With a bluff for any man;
And if you can't do everybody,
Do as many as you can"

must be eliminated.

The question of the How, the Why, the What and the When is a stern proposition to the advertiser.

What is needed in the advertising business is a repair shop for the renovation of old ideas.

To succeed one must possess the ability to transform doubt into certainty.

A good advertisement is the thing that makes a lot of people want to get there first.

Bargain counter people must still be reckoned with.

The cleverest ad-writer is he who can write a line that will make people think a column.

The shorter the advertisement, the more genius is required to produce it.

Simplicity is essential.

The expert formerly wrote this way—"An exquisite and delightful apparel conception for juvenile wear." Now he puts it—"A pretty little coat for the baby."

The printed page cannot appeal directly to any of the senses except the eye, but the argument may be of such a nature that the reader's senses are appealed to indirectly through his imagination.

The nervous system which does not respond to sound or to any other of the sensible qualities is a defective nervous system. Advertisements are sometimes spoken of as the nervous system of the business world.

That advertisement of foods which contains nothing to awaken images of taste is a defective advertisement.

The survival of the fittest seems to be a law of advertising as it is of everything else that develops. Traditionally, the practical business man scoffs at theory. If ever there was ground to expect sarcastic and pessimistic prophecies from the hard headed business man, it was when it was proposed to establish advertising on a theoretical basis deduced from psychology. Such adverse criticism has, however, been the exception.

The American business man is not afraid of theories. He wants them, and the more the better. The advertisement writer is really a psychologist, since he seeks to influence the human mind.

Human nature is a great factor in advertising success and he who writes advertisements without reference to it is apt to find that he has reckoned without his host.

If we are to find and to express the psychological laws upon which the art of advertising is based, we shall have made a distinct advance, for we shall have added the science to the art of advertising.

The mere mention of psychological terms, habit, self, conception, discrimination, association, memory, imagination, perception, reason, emotion, instinct and will, should create a flood of new thought that should appeal to every thoughtful consumer of advertising space. The up-to-date business man should leave off groping in the dark and come out into the open.

Just how extensively an article will sell, depends upon just how good or bad the copy is—that is, how explicit or convincing it is.

Let me say a few words about good copy.

Good Copy

FIRST. There must be a definite motive or purpose. Be specific as to your central idea. A well defined idea to which the wording lends itself harmoniously and effectually and which convinces, while it attracts and charms.

SECOND. Your copy must be full of life. Action begets action. Good things happen when Energy gets chummy with Enterprise.

> Good copy is the poetry of advertising. It is taking a plain fact and making it plainer and more impressive by the art of the language. It is a song which lures and educates and prompts to action.

THIRD. Take the position of the prospective buyer. Would you be influenced by your own advertisement? A wise plan after writing the ad, is to step out of your position into that of the position of the purchaser and see if you have made clear every point that would tend to influence you to buy the goods.

FOURTH. Vary your copy so as to reach different types of people. To make a successful bid for the patronage of the public, the whole social order should be studied and carefully considered.

> To stoop to the use of second rate copy and to buy cheap designs to fill expensively paid-for space, will ultimately show in decreased profits leaving in the minds of the readers a question as to the quality of your goods.

FIFTH. Know all you can about the goods you advertise, their manufacture and uses. The man who is most conversant with the details of the manufacture and use of the article can best tell others about it. You must believe in the merits of your own goods.

SIXTH. Study the idea of leadership, of leading and influencing others.

> It is growing more difficult to strike a new line of expression because advertising has grown to such enormous proportions and has drawn into its surface so many varied talents, that to hit upon something new can almost be considered a discovery.

SEVENTH. Read the classics for new ideas and improved forms for expression–Shakespeare, Emerson and the Prophets of the Old Testament. The writings of David in the Psalms indicate that he was a past grand master of expressive word weaving. He was especially effective in the direct command and in the harmonious reiteration of an idea. You would do well to note how he could start the interest and work towards the climax.

EIGHTH. Feature your advertisement to suit the times and seasons.

NINTH. Study your prospective buyers, first, with the idea of reaching a possible need; second, with the intention of supplying it in a superior manner.

TENTH. Always keep before you the question, "Will it bring results?" That should be both the first and the last question in judging good copy. You may have burned the night oil, written and re-edited and given to the sharp teeth of the type your masterpiece, and then left out the very necessary feature that makes for results.

Finally, your copy should be ready 24 hours before the enterprising newspaper men call for it.

Reflection frequently uncovers a multitude of errors.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Not Many People Today Could Do What Pilgrim Fathers Did

VAN DELLEN

It is difficult to sit down to a Thanksgiving dinner without thinking of the Pilgrim Fathers. Their admirable type of bravery led them to risk the hardships of a precarious ocean voyage to settle in a new land. They subordinated their health, security, and family to the rules of conduct they believed in following.

Life was a serious business and they must have had little fun and joy out of it. Their first thanksgiving—with feasting and games—broke the monotony of a drab routine and added gaiety—at least for a few hours. They must have looked forward to the holiday when they could become somewhat mellow, even though no outward manifestations of having a good time were shown.

I DOUBT if many moderns could take the strict discipline of the time and place without rebelling. How many of us, possessed of equal convictions, would agree to sail on the Mayflower, with all the uncertainties of the voyage. We are too fond of our ease, safety, and creature comforts.

There are many reasons for us to fuss, stew, and worry but much more will be accomplished by using the intelligence with which we are endowed to preserve the home, state, nation, and our individualities. Perhaps today we are shirking decisions and in need of the type of action calling for the high courage of the Pilgrims.

THE GLOOM and despair we associate with the early settlers are understandable. Every other Pilgrim died during the first year. There was little to do when illness appeared because the boundaries of medical knowledge were extremely limited. They scarcely could be happy but a sense of achievement or of martyrdom afforded them personal satisfaction. They were inspired by the hope of a better day, which many of them never saw.

Our problems and discouragements may seem colossal but they are trifling compared with those of the colonists. Yet—despite pestilence and a high mortality rate—these settlers took time to be thankful. What about you?

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

ALBUMIN AND POSTURE

R. H. writes: Does albumin in the urine always mean nephritis?

REPLY

No. In orthostatic albuminuria, for example, the protein is noted only after the individual is up and about. It is not present in the urine that is manufactured by the kidneys at night while sleeping. In such instances, posture plays a role. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on albuminuria.

CALORIES AND EXERCISE

M. G. writes: I'm 28 years old and cannot keep my weight down unless I take only 700 to 800 calories a day. I'm not very active. Could this be the reason I have to starve myself?

REPLY

Yes, providing you are otherwise healthy, are telling the truth, and know how to add.

STARVING HEART

T. G. writes: What is the name of the heart trouble caused by too little blood going to the heart?

REPLY

Coronary artery disease may lead to angina pectoris or coronary thrombosis. The symptoms are somewhat the same but differ mainly in severity.

CHANGE AFTER SURGERY

REPLY

There's no difference. The menses cease and hot flashes may occur just as in the natural menopause.

Novato Police Get Three New Officers

The Novato Police Department added three new officers this week.

They are Harold E. Sutton, 32, of Sonoma; Perry J. Haley, 33, of Richmond, and Gene D. Clayton, 23, of Santa Rosa. Douglas C. Smith of Novato, who won an appointment, did not show up for work because he took employment elsewhere, reported Police Chief Roy McLaren.

Sutton was discharged from the Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base on Oct. 17. He has not had previous police experience. Haley, a former warehouseman, has been a San Pablo reserve policeman. Clayton was discharged from the Marine Corps on Aug. 3. This is his first police job.

West Marin Plan Funds Approved

A contract for state aid in preparing a West Marin Master Plan was approved by 4-1 vote of Marin County supervisors yesterday.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman voted "no."

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said the plan's overall cost would be $45,000, of which the state would appropriate $30,000. Due to staff labor contribution, the county cash outlay would be only $8,000, he said.

Approval was on motion of West Marin Supervisor George Ludy.

Novato Gets Junior High

Novato now has the first officially designated junior high school in Marin County. Novato Unified School District trustees last night changed the name of Hill Intermediate School to Hill Junior High School.

By quirks in state law, only unified and high school districts may operate junior high schools, so named. Seventh-eighth grade schools in elementary school districts are called "intermediate schools."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Not Many People Today Could Do What Pilgrim Fathers Did

VAN DELLEN

It is difficult to sit down to a Thanksgiving dinner without thinking of the Pilgrim Fathers. Their admirable type of bravery led them to risk the hardships of a precarious ocean voyage to settle in a new land. They subordinated their health, security, and family to the rules of conduct they believed in following.

Life was a serious business and they must have had little fun and joy out of it. Their first thanksgiving—with feasting and games—broke the monotony of a drab routine and added gaiety—at least for a few hours. They must have looked forward to the holiday when they could become somewhat mellow, even though no outward manifestations of having a good time were shown.

I DOUBT if many moderns could take the strict discipline of the time and place without rebelling. How many of us, possessed of equal convictions, would agree to sail on the Mayflower, with all the uncertainties of the voyage. We are too fond of our ease, safety, and creature comforts.

There are many reasons for us to fuss, stew, and worry but much more will be accomplished by using the intelligence with which we are endowed to preserve the home, state, nation, and our individualities. Perhaps today we are shirking decisions and in need of the type of action calling for the high courage of the Pilgrims.

THE GLOOM and despair we associate with the early settlers are understandable. Every other Pilgrim died during the first year. There was little to do when illness appeared because the boundaries of medical knowledge were extremely limited. They scarely could be happy but a sense of achievement or of martyrdom afforded them personal satisfaction. They were inspired by the hope of a better day, which many of them never saw.

Our problems and discouragements may seem colossal but they are trifling compared with those of the colonists. Yet—despite pestilence and a high mortality rate—these settlers took time to be thankful. What about you?

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

ALBUMIN AND POSTURE

R. H. writes: Does albumin in the urine always mean nephritis?

REPLY

No. In orthostatic albuminuria, for example, the protein is noted only after the individual is up and about. It is not present in the urine that is manufactured by the kidneys at night while sleeping. In such instances, posture plays a role. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on albuminuria.

CALORIES AND EXERCISE

M. G. writes: I'm 28 years old and cannot keep my weight down unless I take only 700 to 800 calories a day. I'm not very active. Could this be the reason I have to starve myself?

REPLY

Yes, providing you are otherwise healthy, are telling the truth, and know how to add.

STARVING HEART

T. G. writes: What is the name of the heart trouble caused by too little blood going to the heart?

REPLY

Coronary artery disease may lead to angina pectoris or coronary thrombosis. The symptoms are somewhat the same but differ mainly in severity.

CHANGE AFTER SURGERY

REPLY

There's no difference. The menses cease and hot flashes may occur just as in the natural menopause.

Novato Police Get Three New Officers

The Novato Police Department added three new officers this week.

They are Harold E. Sutton, 32, of Sonoma; Perry J. Haley, 33, of Richmond, and Gene D. Clayton, 23, of Santa Rosa. Douglas C. Smith of Novato, who won an appointment, did not show up for work because he took employment elsewhere, reported Police Chief Roy McLaren.

Sutton was discharged from the Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base on Oct. 17. He has not had previous police experience. Haley, a former warehouseman, has been a San Pablo reserve policeman. Clayton was discharged from the Marine Corps on Aug. 3. This is his first police job.

West Marin Plan Funds Approved

A contract for state aid in preparing a West Marin Master Plan was approved by 4-1 vote of Marin County supervisors yesterday.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman voted "no."

Planning Director B. D. Dobbs said the plan's overall cost would be $45,000, of which the state would appropriate $30,000. Due to staff labor contribution, the county cash outlay would be only $8,000, he said.

Approval was on motion of West Marin Supervisor George Ludy.

Novato Gets Junior High

Novato now has the first officially designated junior high school in Marin County. Novato Unified School District trustees last night changed the name of Hill Intermediate School to Hill Junior High School.

By quirks in state law, only unified and high school districts may operate junior high schools, so named. Seventh-eighth grade schools in elementary school districts are called "intermediate schools."

Tense Nerves Block Bowels

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body.

But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrinks, further aggravating the condition.

The most effective relief, many doctors say, comes from a bulking action combined with a colonic nerve stimulating action. Of all leading laxatives only a new tablet called COLONAID gives you this special combination for 3-way overnight relief:

(1) COLONAID stimulates colonic nerve network, to further activate and regularize its muscular "movement". (2) COLONAID's unique re-bulking action helps re-tone tense colon muscles. (3) COLONAID moisturizes for easy passage without pain or strain.

$200 WORTH OF WOODEN INDIAN

Tony Houston (left), Tamalpais High School rally commissioner, and Bill Rice, student body president, grimace and put fingers in ears as "Charlie" beats the drum for Tam. The wooden "Charlie" was carved for the high school by Barney West, Sausalito sculptor, with total cost $200 (including $25 for a redwood log). He replaces a papier mache "Charlie" which, according to Rice, "is somewhat dismembered." The new "mascot" will be insured—for $200. (Independent-Journal photo)

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Many Apartments Going Up Just Around Corner From Emporium Site

At the rate apartment houses are going up near the Northgate Shopping Center, the Emporium may open its doors in 1964 to the tune of a lusher primary trade area than it originally expected.

The Westview Apartments (28 units) at 125 Nova Albion Way about a month ago were supplemented last weekend by opening of the Northview Apartments (32 units) just around the corner at 245 Las Gallinas and within throwing distance of the Emporium site.

Both were built by D. M. Christensen Construction Co. and negotiated by Coldwell Banker and Co., realtors. Both also offer the popular choice of one, two and three-bedroom units, with electric kitchens, draperies and carpeting, courtyards, large swimming pools and sauna baths. Managers are on the premises. Rentals follow standard prices of the area.

We understand that still another cluster nearby is planned for the near future.

RENTALS for one- and two-bedroom apartments and duplexes throughout the county are currently averaging between $80 and $175 per month, according to the Marin County Development Assn.

Rentals for two- and three-bedroom houses are said to be between $100 and $300 per month. Sales prices of existing homes during 1961 were from $14,000 to $60,000. That was also the average, for some homes, specially planned, ran higher. Eight suburban residential areas are within five miles of San Rafael.

THE ASSOCIATION also reports there are about 4,800 acres in Marin either zoned for heavy and light industry, or planned for that use.

Northern Marin has the greatest part of it—3,100 acres, much of it on rail or highway. Prices run from $2,000 to $16,000 per acre. Central Marin (not including San Rafael city limits) has 671 acres, with more than two-thirds of it on rail and highway. Utilities are available at about half of the sites. Prices are running $5,000 to $60,000 per acre.

Southern Marin has 351 zoned for heavy industry and 266 zoned for light—all on rail or highway. Utilities at most sites. Prices $17,000 to $50,000 per acre.

San Rafael has 387 light and heavy industrial acreage within its city limits—more than two-thirds of it vacant. Sales prices during the last year ranged from $20,000 to $50,000 per acre. Parcels are all sizes.

A NEW PRODUCT — Magic Frosting Sugar—is being introduced this month in Marin by C and H Sugar Refining Corp. It consists of super-fine particles of pure cane sugar in small clusters or "bubbles," and was created to give homemakers something with ready-mix conveniences for producing frostings quickly and easily.

The new sugar is said to contain no starch; it neither lumps nor cakes; dissolves instantly in liquids, hot or cold.

Introductory advertisement will run in the Independent-Journal Nov. 28.

PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH
Welcomes you to its
THANKSGIVING SERVICE
at 9:00 a.m.

A Christian worships on Thanksgiving because his heart is filled with gratitude for God's gracious gifts. Although he daily remembers these gifts, he uses this special day, set aside as a national holiday, to give a special thanks for his well-being, his family, his home, his place in life, and his religious liberty. The Christian knows that it is God's love that sustains him in this life and in eternity. This love is especially shown through the gift of God's Son, Jesus Christ.

Take time to honor, worship, thank and praise God this Thanksgiving.

'Sounding Board' Will Be On Friday

Radio KTIM's "Marin Sounding Board" will be heard on Friday this week instead of Thursday.

Four members of the Marin Executive Delegation to the USSR will speak on their trip during the 9 a.m.-10 a.m. broadcast moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer. They are Sidney Braverman, furniture merchant; William R. Seeger, general manager of Marin Municipal Water District; Glenn W. Sleezer, certified public accountant, and Samuel W. Gardiner, attorney.

As usual, a recording of the program will be broadcast Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Command Change At Hamilton Told

Capt. Terry R. Marston has been appointed commander of Headquarters Squadron, Western Communications Region, at Hamilton Air Force Base.

He assumed this command from Maj. J. J. Karlonas who held the position as well as being director of Administrative Service Region. Karlonas remains in the latter post.

Captain Marston was a maintenance officer with the 1850th Facilities Checking Flight. He and his wife and three children live at 14 Harding Drive, Novato.

To Play Lead Role

Ann Jordan of San Rafael will play the lead role in the musical comedy, "Bells Are Ringing," to be presented by St. Mary's College in Kaiser Auditorium, Oakland, Nov. 30, Dec. 1, 7 and 8 at 8:30 p.m.

Weather Squadron At Hamilton Gets New CO

Lt. Col. Ralph J. Steele has been named commander of the Fourth Weather Squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base, succeeding Lt. Col. Mark J. Brown Jr., who recently retired.

Brown came to Hamilton in July, 1961, before which he was stationed at the commander forecast center at Ramstein, Germany. He and his wife and two children live at 23 Sunny Hill Road, Novato.

Tense Nerves Block Bowels

The muscular wall of your colon contains nerves known to medicine as Auerbach's Plexus. In regular people, these nerves tell the colon muscles to propel and expel waste from the body.

But tense nerves or emotional upset can block your normal bowel habits. Your colon muscle impulses are no longer strong enough to eliminate waste—which dries and shrinks, further aggravating the condition.

The most effective relief, many doctors say, comes from a bulking action combined with a colonic nerve stimulating action. Of all leading laxatives only a new tablet called COLONAID gives you this special combination for 3-way overnight relief:

(1) COLONAID stimulates colonic nerve network, to further activate and regularize its muscular "movement". (2) COLONAID's unique re-bulking action helps re-tone tense colon muscles. (3) COLONAID moisturizes for easy passage without pain or strain.

$200 WORTH OF WOODEN INDIAN

Tony Houston (left), Tamalpais High School rally commissioner, and Bill Rice, student body president, grimace and put fingers in ears as "Charlie" beats the drum for Tam. The wooden "Charlie" was carved for the high school by Barney West, Sausalito sculptor, with total cost $200 (including $25 for a redwood log). He replaces a papier mache "Charlie" which, according to Rice, "is somewhat dismembered." The new "mascot" will be insured—for $200. (Independent-Journal photo)

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

Many Apartments Going Up Just Around Corner From Emporium Site

At the rate apartment houses are going up near the Northgate Shopping Center, the Emporium may open its doors in 1964 to the tune of a lusher primary trade area than it originally expected.

The Westview Apartments (28 units) at 125 Nova Albion Way about a month ago were supplemented last weekend by opening of the Northview Apartments (32 units) just around the corner at 245 Las Gallinas and within throwing distance of the Emporium site.

Both were built by D. M. Christensen Construction Co. and negotiated by Coldwell Banker and Co., realtors. Both also offer the popular choice of one, two and three-bedroom units, with electric kitchens, draperies and carpeting, courtyards, large swimming pools and sauna baths. Managers are on the premises. Rentals follow standard prices of the area.

We understand that still another cluster nearby is planned for the near future.

RENTALS for one- and two-bedroom apartments and duplexes throughout the county are currently averaging between $80 and $175 per month, according to the Marin County Development Assn.

Rentals for two- and three-bedroom houses are said to be between $100 and $300 per month. Sales prices of existing homes during 1961 were from $14,000 to $60,000. That was also the average, for some homes, specially planned, ran higher. Eight suburban residential areas are within five miles of San Rafael.

THE ASSOCIATION also reports there are about 4,800 acres in Marin either zoned for heavy and light industry, or planned for that use.

Northern Marin has the greatest part of it—3,100 acres, much of it on rail or highway. Prices run from $2,000 to $16,000 per acre. Central Marin (not including San Rafael city limits) has 671 acres, with more than two-thirds of it on rail and highway. Utilities are available at about half of the sites. Prices are running $5,000 to $60,000 per acre.

Southern Marin has 351 zoned for heavy industry and 266 zoned for light—all on rail or highway. Utilities at most sites. Prices $17,000 to $50,000 per acre.

San Rafael has 387 light and heavy industrial acreage within its city limits—more than two-thirds of it vacant. Sales prices during the last year ranged from $20,000 to $50,000 per acre. Parcels are all sizes.

A NEW PRODUCT — Magic Frosting Sugar—is being introduced this month in Marin by C and H Sugar Refining Corp. It consists of super-fine particles of pure cane sugar in small clusters or "bubbles," and was created to give homemakers something with ready-mix conveniences for producing frostings quickly and easily.

The new sugar is said to contain no starch; it neither lumps nor cakes; dissolves instantly in liquids, hot or cold.

Introductory advertisement will run in the Independent-Journal Nov. 28.

PEACE LUTHERAN CHURCH
Welcomes you to its
at 9:00 a.m.

A Christian worships on Thanksgiving because his heart is filled with gratitude for God's gracious gifts. Although he daily remembers these gifts, he uses this special day, set aside as a national holiday, to give a special thanks for his well-being, his family, his home, his place in life, and his religious liberty. The Christian knows that it is God's love that sustains him in this life and in eternity. This love is especially shown through the gift of God's Son, Jesus Christ.

Take time to honor, worship, thank and praise God this Thanksgiving.
